Bachelor of Music Composition Degree Goal and Outcomes

The goal of the BM Composition degree program is to foster the synthesis of an original creative voice, and the development of a portfolio utilizing a variety of compositional techniques within a variety of formal, procedural, and technological contexts.

Students will:

Demonstrate an original creative compositional voice.

Create compositions using a variety of compositional techniques.

Create compositions in a variety of formal and procedural contexts.

Create compositions in a variety of technological contexts.