Bachelor of Music Theory Degree Goal and Outcome

The goal of the BM theory degree program is to foster effective critical writing, reading, and thinking skills essential to the construction of interpretive arguments.

Students will:

Demonstrate effective critical reading skills.

Demonstrate effective critical writing skills.

Demonstrate effective critical thinking skills.

Demonstrate the ability to engage in independent research that synthesizes current knowledge and generates original insights.