ATEP Learning Outcomes:

Graduates of UW-Eau Claire’s Athletic Training Education Program will:

1. Complete a Bachelors of Science degree in four years (three years from admittance into the major);
2. Obtain a passing percentage on the first attempt on the BOC examination above the national average;
3. Participate in varied clinical education experiences;
   - Obtain an understanding of the athletic trainer within the broader health care system.
4. Demonstrate appropriate oral and written communication skills;
5. Demonstrate the use of technological skills consistent with current practice in athletic training to enhance communication, inquiry, problem solving, and decision-making within athletic training;
6. Apply knowledge of principles, concepts, and theories in the practice of athletic training;
7. Promote and actively participate in professional associations and through service work.
   - Maintain membership in the National Athletic Trainers Association.
   - Participate in local, state, and/or regional athletic training professional activities.
   - Participate in service learning activities associated with the program.