

Chancellor's Welcome

Welcome to the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, one of the finest public universities in the country.

When you meet faculty at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, you almost always meet the students they are working with, and they will talk to you about their students' success and, oftentimes, the collaborative research they are doing with students – leading to publications or presentations at conferences.

Students here have the opportunity to take advantage of programs for which the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire has gained a national reputation. These include the undergraduate/faculty research program, an outstanding study abroad program and community-based education.

In addition, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire offers a rich array of social, cultural and recreational opportunities that will make your time as a student here productive, healthy and just plain fun!

Please take some time to explore our Web site, learn more about our university, and see why the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire is an extraordinary choice for your education.

Brian Levin-Stankevich
Chancellor