Biographical Note

Johannes Dahle received his BA and MA from the University of Minnesota. He began working at the University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire in August 1966 as the Director of Student Activities and University Programs. He held several subsequent positions at UW–Eau Claire, including Director of University Centers (1971-1984), Director of Development (1984-1985), and Director of Development and University Relations (1985-1995). He retired on June 20, 1995 with 29 years of service to the university.
Content Description

The collection consists of three folders of material related to student activism and protest, both on the University of Wisconsin--Eau Claire campus and off. While the collection consists largely of clippings from national publications, there is some regional and local information, including information about UW--Eau Claire’s Free University, protests on the UW--Eau Claire campus, and alternative student publications.
