

Feminist Economics: Perspectives on Patriarchy, Gender Inequality and Women's Empowerment in South Asia

presented by
Sanjukta Chaudhuri
Economics

Wednesday
March 14, 2012
12:10 - 12:50 p.m.
CETL (OL 1142)

Various manifestations of gender inequality are widespread in South Asia: domestic violence, unequal marital bargaining power, gender gaps in mortality rate and son preference. This presentation will discuss a range of gender issues in South Asia from a feminist-economics perspective. Policy prescriptions that promote women's empowerment will be discussed.