

University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire
Psychology Department

POSITION

Probationary tenure-track faculty position in the Psychology Department at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor beginning August 20, 2012.

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidates must have or be near completion of a doctorate, with specialization in school psychology (preferably APA-accredited or NASP-approved). ABD applicants must complete the terminal degree by the time of the first performance review (March, 2013). Area of concentration is open. Candidates should have or be eligible for National Certification as a School Psychologist (NCSP). Ability to teach graduate level courses in school psychology and supervise graduate level students in practicum and internship settings will be considered assets. A candidate who has met the criteria for advanced rank may be considered for an appointment at the Associate Professor level. Ability to bring diverse cultural and ethnic perspectives to the department and the campus, and/or a commitment to serving as a mentor for traditionally underrepresented students will be considered assets.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Applicants will be expected to teach graduate level courses in the Psychology Department's NASP-approved Ed.S. program, supervise graduate student practicum and internship experiences, teach undergraduate courses as assigned, participate in research and scholarly activities, provide academic advising, engage in service to the university and community, and participate in department, college, and university committee work.

PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Fifteen full time faculty members in the Psychology Department represent a broad range of specialty areas and serve more than 500 undergraduate psychology majors. The school psychology graduate program is a National Association of School Psychologists (NASP)-approved three-year program, admitting 8 students each year. School psychology faculty members have primary responsibility for core school psychology courses (assessment, consultation, professional issues, interventions, supervision of practica and internship). Other members of the department teach supporting coursework. Both the school psychology and other faculty in the department participate in the supervision of Specialist theses. For more information, visit the Psychology Department website at <http://www.uwec.edu/psyc>.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT CENTER

The school psychology program sponsors the university's Human Development Center (HDC). The HDC was established on the campus of UW-Eau Claire in 1968 to serve as a setting for training graduate students and to provide interdisciplinary educational and consultative services to the Eau Claire community. The center is unique in its mission, function, and longevity within the University of Wisconsin System. The mission of the HDC is to offer clinical services to clients in the community and region and to educate university students and provide research opportunities in an interdisciplinary setting.

UNIVERSITY and EAU CLAIRE COMMUNITY

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire campus community consists of 10,500 students and 700 faculty and administrative/professional staff. UW-Eau Claire is the UW System's only Center of Excellence for faculty and undergraduate research; faculty and students regularly work side-by-side on original research.

Often described as Wisconsin's most beautiful campus, UW-Eau Claire's campus spans the banks of the Chippewa River in the heart of Eau Claire, western Wisconsin's largest city. Eau Claire and the surrounding countryside have many scenic rivers, lakes, parks, bike trails and wooded areas where students and community members enjoy seasonal sports, camping and a variety of other recreational activities.

A city of 65,000, Eau Claire is an affordable community with employment opportunities for family members and outstanding schools for children. Eau Claire is just 90 miles from Minneapolis-St. Paul, which offers world-class theatre, symphony and chamber orchestras, opera, and restaurants as well as professional sports, shopping, and cultural diversity.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Please send letter of application, statement of teaching and research interests, graduate school transcript, curriculum vitae, summary of student evaluations (if available), three letters of recommendation, and a sample of scholarly work to:

Dr. Lori Bica, Chair
Psychology Department
105 Garfield Avenue
University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire
Eau Claire, Wisconsin 54702-4004

To ensure consideration, completed applications must be received by December 1, 2011. However, screening will continue until position is filled. The university reserves the right to contact additional references with notice given to the candidates at an appropriate time in the process. Applicants' names are subject to public release unless confidentiality has been requested in writing. Names of all finalists must be released. UW-Eau Claire is an AA/EEO employer dedicated to enhancing diversity. A criminal background check is required prior to employment.
