

University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire
Psychology Department

POSITION

Probationary tenure-track faculty position in the Psychology Department at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning August 20, 2012.

QUALIFICATIONS

Doctorate or ABD in Social Psychology from a regionally accredited higher education institution is required. ABD applicants must provide evidence that the doctoral degree will be completed by the first performance review (March, 2013).

Area of Specialty: Social Psychology

Area of Concentration: Open

Evidence of effective undergraduate teaching is required; experience teaching research methods, social psychology and/or introduction to psychology considered an asset. Commitment to involving undergraduate students in collaborative research is expected. Ability to bring diverse cultural and ethnic perspectives to the department and the campus, and/or a commitment to serving as a mentor for traditionally underrepresented students will be considered assets.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Teach courses as assigned in the Psychology Department, including research methods, introduction to psychology, and courses in the applicant's area of specialty. Participate in research and scholarly activities, provide academic advising to students as assigned, engage in service to the university and community, and participate in department/program, college, and university committee work.

DEPARTMENT

Fifteen full time faculty members in the Psychology Department represent a broad range of specialty areas. We serve more than 500 undergraduate psychology majors and 20 school psychology graduate students. For more details, visit our web site at <http://www.uwec.edu/psyc>.

UNIVERSITY and EAU CLAIRE COMMUNITY

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire campus community consists of 10,500 students and 700 faculty members and administrative/professional staff. UW-Eau Claire is the UW System's only Center of Excellence for faculty and undergraduate research; faculty members and students regularly work side-by-side on original research. UW-Eau Claire is committed to building an inclusive, equitable, and supportive environment for all students, faculty, and staff members.

Often described as Wisconsin's most beautiful campus, UW-Eau Claire's campus spans the banks of the Chippewa River in the heart of Eau Claire, western Wisconsin's largest city. Eau Claire and the surrounding countryside have many scenic rivers, lakes, parks, bike trails and wooded areas where students and community members enjoy seasonal sports, camping and a variety of other recreational activities.

A city of 65,000, Eau Claire is an affordable community with employment opportunities for family members and outstanding schools for children. Eau Claire is just 90 miles from Minneapolis and St. Paul, which offer world-class theatre, symphony and chamber orchestras, opera, and restaurants, as well as professional sports and shopping.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Please send letter of application, statements of teaching and research interests, graduate school transcript, curriculum vitae, summary of student evaluations (if available), three letters of recommendation, and a sample of scholarly work to:
