

The UW-Eau Claire Environmental Adventure Center (EAC)
In conjunction with the UW-Eau Claire Confluence Center, Watershed Institute,
Student Rod & Gun Club, & Wisconsin Youth Success Program (WYSP)

PRESENTS:

THE 7TH ANNUAL
ALDO LEOPOLD BANQUET AND SILENT AUCTION

"Passing the conservation torch to the next generation"

MARCH 2, 2012 | 5:00 PM – 10:00 PM

EAU CLAIRE ROD & GUN CLUB
(801 SCHOETTL AVE. EAU CLAIRE, WISC. 832-4391)

TICKETS: UWEC STUDENTS $15

FACULTY & COMMUNITY $20

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT THE UW-EAU CLAIRE SERVICE CENTER
OR BY PHONE: 715-836-3727 OR 800-949-8932

JOIN US FOR A VERY SPECIAL PRE-DINNER PROGRAM (6:00 PM) FEATURING:

- Introduction of the Aldo Leopold land ethic by MC & renowned author and outdoorsman John Hildebrand (UWEC English Dept.)
- Special guest appearances and comments by:
 - The James Leary family who recently donated 160 acres of pristine property to the UWEC Foundation at the confluence of the Chippewa & Flambeau Rivers.
 - Kimera Way, Executive Director, of the UW-Eau Claire Foundation who recently purchased the beautiful 112 acre St. Bede Monastery property.
 - Kenny Salwey (hunter, fisher, trapper, story teller) and star of the BBC award winning film "Mississippi: Tales of the Last River Rat."

IN ADDITION:

- Exquisite dining served by the UWEC Student Rod & Gun featuring: Beef Slough Chicken, Tiffany Bottoms Venison Stew, gourmet vegetables, and delectable pies served compliments of the Norske Nook.
- Special musical selections presented by the talented EAC student staff.

Come honor the conservation legacy of Aldo Leopold and help promote the concept of developing a land ethic from persons young to old. Get your tickets while they last!!!

Aldo Leopold was an avid hunter, fisher, archer, forester, and conservationist and all event proceeds benefit the UW-Eau Claire Wisconsin Youth Success Program (WYSP) to introduce youth to the great outdoors. For more information contact Dan Langlois at 836-3616 or e-mail at langlodt@uwec.edu