Students have the ability grant permission for a parent or guest to access specific student account information including contact information, emergency contacts, bills, financial aid, grades, holds and, to do lists. A student may revoke access to a guest at any time, without notice to the guest.

Log into CampS and go to and click

- Click then read and click to the terms and conditions

- Provide delegate information and select what information you want them to have access.