WHEREAS, the University Activities Commission Bylaws within the Student Senate Bylaws do not wholly reflect current practices of the University Activities Commission and so require general updates; and

WHEREAS, the Higher Grounds Programming Committee does not currently have any chairs or committee members and Higher Grounds functions as a part of University Centers; and

WHEREAS, clarification is needed as to the process of hiring new chairs for the standing committees; and

WHEREAS, the Cabin and Concerts committees, respectively, endeavor toward similar purposes and often schedule events that conflict on a regular basis; and

WHEREAS, a consolidation of the Cabin and Concerts committees and the “Cabin & Concerts” could produce a better allocation of human resources; and

WHEREAS, a consolidation of the Cabin and Concerts committees could also remove the possibility of scheduling conflicts among them and would also be able to better manage long-term and short-term event planning; and

WHEREAS, the UAC Executive Board should consider the pros and cons of consolidating these two committees and report back to Student Senate their findings and suggestions regarding this potential consideration;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Student Senate Bylaws reflect the changes within Attachment “A;” and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the UAC executive board review the pros and cons of consolidating the Concerts and Cabins committees and deliver a report to Student Senate no later than the last Senate meeting of March 2013; and
