Constitutional Amendment

F: Vacancies. Vacancies arising in the Senate shall be filled by appointment upon majority vote of the Vacancies Committee of the Senate, with the advice and consent of the Senate, until the next election. The Vacancies Committee of the Senate shall be chaired by the President and Vice President, and consist of the Vice President and consist of three Senators at least one of which must be on-campus, and one of which must be an off-campus senator. The election of the Senators to this committee shall take place at the third or fourth meeting of the Senate after the general election.