   - ULEC has worked hard to construct learning outcomes, very aspirational goals
     - 11,000 students to get through – practical reality
     - Must continue to have a presence at APC
   - Discussion of what ULEC needs to do next
     - Be proactive – Title III has been collecting data
     - Rumors that framework not “workable” – does it require an adjustment?
       - Invite someone not involved with APC to discuss whether the framework can be implemented
       - APC continues to work on the document which can be found on the Liberal Education Reform Web site.
       - If APC has it, ULEC shouldn’t rework it/start the process over
     - Senate will be voting on the “Proposed Student Learning Outcomes for the Liberal Education Core at UWEC” document tomorrow
   - New members would like a summary/presentation of what ULEC put forward, how it’s changed, what it means for students
