Title III staff development stipends are available for instructors participating in the Blugold Bundles Learning Communities for the first time. First time Blugold Bundle instructors will receive a stipend of $1500 ($750 summer 2013, $750 summer 2014) through Title III grant funds. Each first time instructor is expected to:

- Implement integrative learning strategies in collaboration with their instructor team into their Blugold Bundle course.
- Participate in faculty/staff development seminars, workgroups, discussions, program evaluation.
- Submit syllabi, assignments and student work that reflect the implementation of integrative learning teaching strategies.
- Participate in the assessment of integrative learning student learning outcomes.
- Contribute to the growth of common understanding and practice of integrative learning pedagogies at UW-Eau Claire.

Each Blugold Bundle Learning Community should designate one person to serve as the Blugold Bundle Learning Community Coordinator. Coordinators with more than two courses will be paid a stipend through Title III funds of $300 per semester. Coordinator responsibilities include:

- Serve as communication contact for Blugold Bundle information.
- Coordinate Blugold Bundle colleague communications and efforts pertaining to the Blugold Bundle.
- Assure that Blugold bundle paper work and documentation are being completed and submitted.

Please refer to the Blugold Bundle timeline guide for further information.

First time participants interested in implementing inclusive multicultural learning outcomes or global learning outcomes will receive a stipend of $500 with the following expectations:

- Implement teaching and learning strategies to improve student learning outcomes in the chosen area (Workdays will provide implementation guidance and supports).
- Participate in one workday, implement teaching and learning strategies, develop and implement an assessment plan, and contribute to overall program evaluation.
- Contribute to the growth of common understanding and practice of multicultural or global learning teaching and learning at UW-Eau Claire.

Please note that there will typically not be course replacement funds available for participation in Blugold Bundles. Contact the respective college deans with questions.
