Fact:
The University Faculty Constitution, Section G – University Faculty Committees states:
Membership and functions of all University Faculty standing committees shall be included in the bylaws. The University Faculty may, either directly or by action of the University Faculty members of the University Senate, establish ad hoc committees.

The University Academic Staff Constitution, Section G – University Academic Staff Committees states:
Membership and functions of all University Academic Staff standing committees shall be included in the bylaws. The University Academic Staff may, either directly or by action of the University Academic Staff members of the University Senate, establish ad hoc committees.

The University Senate Constitution, Section G – Committees states:
Membership and functions of all University Senate standing committees shall be included in the bylaws.

These phrases allow for the merger of all university-wide governance committees to be gathered together into one Article within the Bylaws for ease of reference.
