PROPOSAL FOR NEW STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM
Public History in England
Harlaxton College, York, Durham, Liverpool, Birkenhead, London, UK

RATIONALE: This request comes in support of the new summer course recently approved by the APC, History 401/601, Public History in England. Europe continues to be the leading study abroad destination nationally and among University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire students. This program will be of particular interest to history majors and minors, those with an undergraduate emphasis in public history, and UW-Eau Claire students pursuing a graduate certificate in public history.

ENROLLMENT LIMITS: The minimum number of students for this program is 12 students. The program would like to run with 13 based on the size of the coach provided by Harlaxton College and the cost of transportation.

CURRICULUM: History 401/601, Public History in England is the corresponding course for the INTA, and has already been approved by the APC. The program begins in Grantham for one week at Harlaxton College. UW-Eau Claire faculty will collaborate with English faculty and public historians to deliver academic content. After a week at Harlaxton College, the program travels to York, Liverpool, and London and returns to Grantham for the final week of the program.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Housing is arranged through Harlaxton College while in Grantham. While traveling, the group will stay hostels and hotels.

CALENDAR: This is four week summer program running in the month of June to early July. The first UW-Eau Claire students will participate in summer 2013, June 9 through July 5.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: The program is open to all UW-Eau Claire and non-UW-Eau Claire, undergraduate and graduate students in good academic standing, with a cumulative resident GPA of 2.3, and at least sophomore standing by the beginning of the program.

Students from all academic disciplines are welcome to apply; UW-Eau Claire students currently majoring or minoring in public history will be given preference in the case of a competitive application selection.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE/FOREIGN CULTURE REQUIREMENTS: Upon successful completion of the program, students will earn 3 credits towards the FL/FC requirement.
