Online and Hybrid Teaching and Learning

Online Course

Online courses are courses in which 100 percent of the instruction occurs in an online environment.

Hybrid Course

Hybrid courses are courses in which more than 25 percent of the scheduled course meetings are delivered outside the tradition classroom.

Attendance Policy

Attendance in online and hybrid courses should be equivalent to face-to-face expectations and should include class time, prep time, and homework time.

Final Examination Policy

For online and hybrid courses, a final exam (or the equivalent) can be administered outside of class or in the online environment.
