

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN - EAU CLAIRE

Department of Communication and Journalism

Spring 2009

Henry Lippold Freelance Reporting
Scholarship for Spectator Staff Excellence

This scholarship is designated for a non-staff writer who has demonstrated excellence in freelance reporting and has made major contributions of time and effort to the editorial success of The Spectator. The recipient of the award must continue to work for The Spectator in the fall.

Word Process the following information on a separate page.

Name	Major GPA
Student ID number	Completed Credits in Major
Email Address	Minor
Local Address	Total GPA
Permanent Address	Credits in Progress
Telephone	Completed Credits
Major	Expected graduation date

For the review of the scholarship committee, address all of the following points in no more than two typed double spaced pages. Attach a current resume, unofficial transcript and two examples of your work demonstrating excellence in writing.

1. With a personal statement, explain how your experience at The Spectator has added value to your education and career goals.
2. Identify your contributions to the The Spectator and how your contributions demonstrate excellence.
3. Describe any other qualifications you have for this scholarship.
4. List your previous awards or recognition within The Spectator.
5. What are your career objectives?

Professor Henry Lippold established the broadcast journalism sequence at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. His life and career represent the classic bridge between academic and the broadcast industry. He taught broadcast journalism at UWEC from 1972 to 2001. Lippold received a BS in political science from the University of Wisconsin- Madison and a Master of Science in Journalism from Northwestern University. In June 2002, he was inducted into the Wisconsin Broadcasters Hall of Fame. Read scholarship history information at <http://www.uwec.edu/cj/Scholarships.htm>.

Submit application to the Department of Communication and Journalism office, HHH 152, by April 7, 2009.

The winner of this award is expected to attend the Department of Communication and Journalism Student Excellence Recognition Reception on Friday, May 8, 2009, 3:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m., Tamarack Room, Davies Center.