Hello everyone! Happy Friday! :) Last night's meeting was great, due to our wonderful speaker, Karyn Quandt. If you couldn't make it and are interested in getting a packet she put together for us, see me, and I can give one to you. She shared her experiences as a band director, and gave advice on many of the topics that we think about and even sometimes don't think about.

We also discussed elections for the executive board for next year. The nomination sheet is on the NBA board. If you would like to nominate yourself or anyone else, feel free to take a look.

I hope you all have a great weekend!

Nancy :)
