WISCONSIN STATE UNIVERSITY - EAU CLAIRE

UNIVERSITY ARTISTS SERIES — Third Season

UNIVERSITY FIELDHOUSE

THE NORMAN LUCOFF CHOIR — Those thirty virtuoso professional singers (accompanied by four gifted and amazingly versatile instrumentalists) are equally at home with the cantatas of Bach and the hit tunes of Broadway.
Friday, October 20 — 8:15 p.m.

ORCHESTRA JEAN-FRANCOIS PAILLARD — After ten years of recording and twelve Grand Prix du Disque, this outstanding French ensemble is touring North America for the first time.
Friday, November 3 — 8:15 p.m.

BERLIN MOZART CHOIR — Ranging in age from ten to twenty-one years, the thirty-eight singers represent the finest young voices in Berlin. The "Singing Ambassadors of Berlin" are making their first U.S. tour.
Monday, November 20 — 8:15 p.m.

BRANKO KRSMANOVICIH CHORUS — The eighty powerful voices of this choir from Belgrade, Yugoslavia have thrilled audiences on four previous tours in this country. This is a joint concert presented by the Civic Music Association and the University Artists Series and special seating arrangements will be in effect.
Wednesday, January 31 — 8:15 p.m.

STOCKHOLM PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA — One of Scandinavia's most famous musical ensembles is on its first North American tour. One hundred musicians perform under one of the world's most exciting conductors, Antal Dorati.
Friday, March 15 — 8:15 p.m.

DIE KAMMERUSIKER OF ZURICH and THE RIVERSIDE SINGERS — Two brilliant ensembles in a rare joint appearance will undoubtedly delight the most discriminating listeners.
Friday, April 19 — 8:15 p.m.

UNIVERSITY ARTISTS CHAMBER SERIES — First Season

SCHOFIELD AUDITORIUM

NATIONAL BRASS ENSEMBLE — An outstanding group of six internationally acclaimed artists performing a variety of music for brass.
Friday, December 1 — 8:15 p.m.

JUILLIARD STRING QUARTET — America's most renowned quartet noted for unerring rhythmic accuracy, tension of phrasing, control of dynamics and flawless intonation.
Sunday, February 18 — 8:15 p.m.

SAINT PUAL CHAMBER ORCHESTRA — In only eight seasons this ensemble has developed a national reputation as a virtuoso chamber ensemble. Date in late spring.

NOTE: Doors Open Thirty Minutes Before Performance.

GENERAL INFORMATION

We are pleased to announce that again season tickets for the University Artists Series and the new University Artists Chamber Series will be available to the concert-going public. It is hoped that the addition of a chamber ensemble will encourage even greater participation in the distinguished cultural offerings presented by the University.

The season ticket prices for the six Fieldhouse concerts have been established at $10, $8, and $6 with special rates for University I.D. holders. These prices include not only a saving on the series, but also admission to the concerts by the Branko Krsmanovich Chorus sponsored jointly by the Civic Music Association and the University Artists Series for which no single admission tickets will be available. Single admission tickets for the other five concerts (if available) will be placed on sale two weeks before the event.

The season ticket prices for the three Schofield Auditorium concerts have been established at $7 and $5. These prices also include a saving over single admission tickets. Two weeks before each event, single admission tickets will be placed on sale at $2.50 and $2.00.

Season ticket orders will be accepted for the 1967-68 season until two weeks before the opening concert in each series. All reserved seats will be filled in the order received at the University Ticket Office. A season ticket assures the patron of the same reserved seat for each performance of the series with the exception of the joint concert.

When ordering please use the attached order blank, enclose a check made payable to Wisconsin State University - Eau Claire and enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope. To be seated with friends, please include all orders in one envelope. Season tickets will be mailed the second week in October.

For additional information, call the University Ticket Office at 894-2061.
