Marketing, General

The marketing program prepares students for success through a curriculum that includes a strong liberal education core, and major-specific coursework that provides in-depth knowledge of marketing and business. The program also helps students develop communication, teamwork, and problem solving skills, which are highly valued by organizations seeking to employ marketing professionals.

Graduates work in a wide variety of industries and organizations in such positions as account representatives, communications specialists, event marketing coordinators, marketing researchers, retail buyers, and social media managers.
