Looking for the ultimate European experience?

SPRING 2012 PROGRAM

Go global. GlobITpro is an innovative, study abroad experience in Austria and Germany that prepares IT savvy students to live and work in a global business world. As a GlobITpro student, you will participate in classroom and extracurricular activities designed to help develop a global mindset receptive to and respectful of cultural differences, global knowledge that includes an understanding of entrepreneurship and IT management and research, and global work skills that prepare you to work effectively across cultures.

you will receive 10 credits of study for the program listed below:
- January–March: Management Center Innsbruck (MCI)
- March: Berlin Field Trip (includes corporate visits to BMW, Lufthansa and SAP)
- March–May: Technische Universität Braunschweig (TUBS)

who should apply?
GlobITpro is open to any University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire or University of Nebraska-Omaha student who meets the following criteria:
- US citizen
- Completed at least 24 credits of a bachelor degree program prior to departure
- Cumulative GPA of at least a 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale)

for application information, contact:
Dr. Matt Gernonprez
Associate Professor of Information Technology
UW-Eau Claire Department of Information Systems
e: germonr@uwec.edu
t: 715 836 5968

estimated costs:
In-state resident tuition and fees.* All GlobITpro students will receive a $5,000 stipend which can be used for airfare, room and board, and/or travel within Europe.

*This includes full-time tuition, CISI insurance and administrative fees. Minnesota residents add reciprocity; non-residents add non-resident fees. Additional costs to expect: passport, international and local transportation, housing, food, books, and personal expenses. If you qualify for additional financial aid, you can apply your aid to program costs. Your aid package will be based on actual costs in Austria and Germany, including round-trip airfare. Contact your campus GlobITpro coordinator for more information.

DEADLINE: March 1, 2011

apply now

about GlobITpro:
GlobITpro is a collaborative program of four universities: the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire (USA), the University of Nebraska-Omaha (USA), Management Center Innsbruck (Austria) and Technische Universität Braunschweig (Germany). The program is funded in part by an ATUAWES Mobility Grant from the U.S. Department of Education and the European Union.