HELPING STUDENTS IN DISTRESS:
Faculty and Staff Resource Guide

Dean of Students
The Dean of Students Office and Students of Concern Committee work to identify individuals who need assistance in order to avert crisis and keep both the student and campus community safe and healthy.

Campus Resources
- Counseling Services: 715-836-5521
- Student Health Services: 715-836-4311
- Dean of Students: 715-836-5626
- Students with Disabilities: 715-836-4542
- University Police: 715-839-4972
- Veterans Services: 715-826-5912
- Housing and Residence Life: 715-836-3674
- International Education: 715-836-4411
- CASA Crisis Line: 715-836-HELP

Community Resources
- Sacred Heart Hospital: 715-839-4222
- Luther Midelfort Hospital: 715-838-3311
- Bolton Refuge House: 715-834-9578
- Family Support Center: 715-830-0188
- Ecumenical Religious Center: 715-834-7781
- Crisis Call Center: 800-362-8255

Questions/Concerns:
Dean of Students Office
Room 240, Schofield Hall
715-836-5626
deanofstudents@uwec.edu
www.uwec.edu/dos

Dangerous Student
Verbal or physical threats to harm self or others; Violent or overtly dangerous behavior; Safety is an immediate concern

Disruptive or Disturbing Student
Demonstrates bizarre behavior or communication; Disruptive to the living or learning environment; Safety is not an immediate concern

Call 911

Consultation or Referral
- Counseling Services: 715-836-5521
- Dean of Students Office: 715-836-5626

After Hours:
Crisis Call Center: 800-362-8255

Distressed Student
A student who may be nervous, very sad, agitated, paranoid, highly anxious, lacks motivation or concentration in class; Sleeping, drinking, or hangovers in class; Experiences dramatic weight change; Sudden changes in typical behavior; Marked changes in academic performance

Academic Concern
Professor; or Department Chair; or Assistant/Associate Dean of the College

Consultation or Referral
- Counseling Services: 715-836-5521
- Dean of Students Office: 715-836-5626