Exploring Snapchat as a Dynamic Capture Tool for Social Exchange in Persons with Aphasia

McNair Scholar: Carissa Baier
Faculty Mentor: Professor Jerry Hoepner

Abstract:

This project explores the efficacy of the application Snapchat as a dynamic capture tool for social exchanges among individuals with aphasia. The project tracks the exchanges of photos and videos between participants to assist their communication and promote social closeness.