Parking and Transportation Services: The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, like other colleges and universities, finds parking to be an ever present and evolving challenge. Parking and Transportation Services, in cooperation with students, faculty, and administrators, strives to find an equitable way to manage the limited number of parking spaces available to all members of the University community. Therefore, parking policies and regulations at UW-Eau Claire are aimed at easing the parking crunch on campus and in the neighborhoods adjacent to the campus. These policies and regulations are part of an overall parking plan, which incorporates a multifaceted approach to managing the limited number of parking spaces available on campus. It includes a differentiated pricing system for parking permits, significant penalties for violations, and a free city-wide transit service. Detailed and current parking information may be obtained from Parking and Transportation Services, Schneider 106, 715-836-2002, by emailing parking@uwec.edu, or the website at: www.uwec.edu/parking.

Visitor Parking: Visitors to campus should stop at the Visitor Center to receive a guest parking permit and directions to various campus and city destinations. Located at the corner of Park and Roosevelt Streets on lower campus, the Visitor Center also offers reserved parking with 24-hour advance notice. For reservations and detailed information, call the Visitor Center at 715-836-2544.

Visiting the Campus: Visitors may obtain a brochure describing the campus and its facilities from the Campus Information Services, East Lobby, Davies Center or from the Visitor Center. Conducted tours may be arranged through the Admissions Office. An overview of the campus can be seen through a three-dimensional model of buildings and grounds located in the Schofield Hall/Old Library breezeway.

THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire was founded in 1916 as the Eau Claire State Normal School, occupying a single building on land donated to the state by the city of Eau Claire. The academic history of the institution is reflected in its subsequent changes of name and mission. As a State Teachers College (1927-51) it awarded baccalaureate degrees in education; as one of the Wisconsin State Colleges (1951-64) it added degree programs in liberal arts. The state colleges were granted university status in 1964, and the Wisconsin State University-Eau Claire was organized into the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Education, and Graduate Studies. The School of Nursing was created in 1965 and the School of Business in 1966. With the merger of the two state-supported university systems in 1971, Eau Claire became a member of the University of Wisconsin System, which includes 13 universities, 13 two-year colleges, and UW-Extension. In 2004, an administrative restructuring created four colleges: the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Business, the College of Education and Human Sciences, and the College of Nursing and Health Sciences.

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire today is a multipurpose institution, offering a variety of undergraduate and graduate programs and serving regionally as a center for continuing education. The physical plant includes 28 major buildings located on a 333-acre, two-level campus, which embraces Putnam Park on the south bank of the Chippewa River and is connected by a footbridge to the Haas Fine Arts Center and the Human Sciences and Services building on the north bank. The student body numbers approximately 10,500; faculty and academic staff total over 750.

Select Mission of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire

In addition to the University of Wisconsin System Mission and the Core Mission of the University Cluster Institutions, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire has the following select mission:

We foster in one another creativity, critical insight, empathy and intellectual courage—the hallmarks of a transformative liberal education and the foundation for active citizenship and lifelong inquiry.

We fulfill our mission through a pervasive university commitment to provide:

- Rigorous, intentional and experiential undergraduate liberal education for life and livelihood;
• Strong, distinctive professional and graduate programs that build on and strengthen our proud tradition of liberal education;
• Multicultural and international learning experiences for a diverse world;
• Exemplary student-faculty research and scholarship that enhance teaching and learning;
• An inclusive campus community that challenges students to develop their intellectual, personal, cultural, and social competencies;
• Educational opportunities responsive to the needs of our communities, state, region, and beyond; and
• Academic leadership in transforming liberal education.

INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT RESOURCES

Classroom instruction at the University is supplemented by services provided to the entire academic community and by the specialized resources of individual departments, including a number of facilities and collections which are made available to the public.

The William D. McIntyre Library is a dynamic, student-centered research environment dedicated to providing high-quality resources and services to users. Occupying a six-level structure in the center of the campus, the library is open 112 hours each week during fall and spring semesters. Its study facilities are designed to create an inviting atmosphere with upholstered seating, individual carrels, and reserveable group study rooms equipped with state-of-the-art technology. Collections consist of over 700,000 books and 246,000 government publications in its role as a regional depository for state materials and as a selective depository for federal information. All of these items may be located using the library’s online catalog. The library currently subscribes to 910 periodicals in print form and provides access to more than 165 online periodical indexes and over 34,700 full-text electronic journals, all accessible both on- and off-campus. The library is also home to the Instructional Media Center providing access to elementary and secondary curriculum materials, and Special Collections Department which includes the University Archives, housing documentation of the official and unofficial life of the University since 1916, the local history collection, and the rare book collection. Special Collections also serves as an Area Research Center (ARC) or a regional depository of the Wisconsin Historical Society, containing historical manuscripts, public records, maps, and photos relating to Eau Claire and five surrounding counties.

The library is also an access point to materials at other libraries and archives through the state and country. Students can borrow materials from other libraries in the University of Wisconsin System via universal borrowing. Materials can be borrowed from other libraries using interlibrary loan, which provides access to materials in both print and electronic form, with requested articles taking as little as 48 hours to acquire. The ARC can borrow other archival materials from the Wisconsin Historical Society, State Archives, or the rest of the ARC Network.

In response to students’ technology needs, the library provides over 100 computers and offers wireless access for those who wish to use their own technology. Students can borrow laptops, digital cameras, and video cameras from the library to use in support of their course assignments. A majority of the library’s resources and services are available via the Library’s Web page, anytime, anywhere.

Learning and Technology Services (LTS) provides information and instructional technology services and support to foster student learning and to promote excellence in education, scholarship, and related University endeavors.

The LTS Help Desk offers answers to student or faculty questions about technology—hardware or software—close to 24/7 via face-to-face walk-in, email, or phone consultations. SITES AND COLLECTIONS SUPPORTING INSTRUCTION AND RESEARCH

The Goodner Collection and the Owens Collection of Native American materials were gifts to the UW-Eau Claire Foundation. The Newman Collection of Native American artifacts and memorabilia is on loan to the Foundation. Part of the Newman Collection is displayed on the first floor of Hibbard Humanities Hall, next to the office of the American Indian Studies program. Other collections include Wisconsin Indian basketry and beadwork, casts, and skeletal materials pertaining to human evolution. Used extensively by students in cultural and physical anthropology courses, these materials are on display in classrooms in Room 303, Schneider Hall.

The James Newman Clark Bird Museum, circular in shape, surrounds the Planetarium in Phillips Hall. The collection of approximately 530 specimens and four dioramas depicting native birds in their natural habitats are used by students in biology. The museum is open to the public from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and at other times by appointment. For more information contact Ms. Lynn Young Janik, Department of Biology.

The L. E. Phillips Planetarium, located in the J.N. Clark Museum (Phillips Hall), contains a Spitz model A-3-P planetarium with a seating capacity of 50. The planetarium is used by classes in the Department of Physics and Astronomy. Programs for local school groups and the public are scheduled during the year.

Putnam Park, 200 acres of natural vegetation in the midst of the campus, provides an area for the study of flora and fauna within easy walking distance of classrooms, as well as a place for relaxation and hiking. The park is traversed by Putnam Drive and by a nature trail, for which printed guides are available in the Campus Information Services of Davies Center. For more information contact Dr. Evan Weiher, Department of Biology.
The S. W. Casey Observatory, located atop Phillips Hall, contains a computer-controlled, seven-inch Maksutov-Cassegrain telescope with a charge-coupled-device (CCD) camera. The observatory is adjacent to an observing deck with 11 stations for student use in astronomy laboratory classes. These stations use eight-inch telescopes.

Off-Campus-Wisconsin:

The Hobbs Observatory, located 15 miles east of the campus at the Beaver Creek Reserve, contains a 24-inch computer-controlled telescope, a 14-inch Schmidt-Cassegrain telescope, a CCD camera, and a classroom. This observatory is open to the public on Saturday nights, when clear, during the months of May through October.

Nature Conservancy Tracts, owned by the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Foundation, include 320 acres of forest and marsh land which are available for scientific investigations and class use. One of these, the Schmidt Tract, is approximately 30 miles east of Eau Claire, in Clark County, and two are in Washburn County, near Sarona and Spooner. More specific information concerning location and use of this land can be obtained from Dr. Paula Kleintjes Neff, Department of Biology.

Pigeon Lake Field Station, operated under the auspices of the UW System and UW-River Falls, includes approximately 50 acres in the heart of the Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest, about 150 miles north of Eau Claire. The Station’s 16 cabins, dining hall, recreation hall, and five well-equipped classrooms accommodate up to 120 students. Through the cooperation of the U. S. Forest Service, Field Station programs have access to 825,000 acres of the Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest, where rivers, streams, lakes, bogs, ponds, and old-growth forests offer a diversity of flora, fauna, and ecosystems for study. For more specific information contact Dr. Chris Floyd, Department of Biology.

Off-Campus-Mississippi:

The Gulf Coast Research Laboratory (GCRL), Ocean Springs, Mississippi, is an out-of-state institution affiliated with the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. The GCRL offers two summer terms, and provides an opportunity for students to obtain instruction in a marine environment. For more specific information contact Dr. David Lonzarich, Department of Biology.

EDUCATIONAL AND COMMUNITY SERVICES

Human Development Center

The Human Development Center (HDC) is an interdisciplinary clinic working with individuals and families from western Wisconsin. Under the direct supervision of faculty supervisors, student clinicians from Communication Sciences and Disorders, Education Studies (Reading), Psychology, Special Education, and Social Work provide assessment, intervention, and consultation services to children, adolescents, young adults, and families. The HDC also sponsors research programs involving academic assessment and intervention, behavioral health, and child and school psychology.

Psychological Services Center

The Psychological Services Center, a clinic staffed by faculty members from the departments of Psychology and Social Work, is located in the HDC. The center provides psychological and family assessment, parent training, and academic and behavioral consultation services to clients. Allied disciplines also participate in the center, providing a variety of consulting services, including health, education, and assessment.

Lac du Flambeau Service-Learning Project

For the past 14 years, the HDC has sponsored a unique and valuable service-learning experience for UW-Eau Claire undergraduate students. Approximately 20 undergraduate and eight graduate students per semester travel to the Lac du Flambeau American Indian Reservation in northeastern Wisconsin. On two separate overnight trips, students learn about the Lac du Flambeau people by visiting tribal museums, working in the Lac du Flambeau Head Start program and public school, and interacting with American Indian children and families. The program requires students to participate in a two-day orientation trip and then a two-day follow-up trip later in the semester. Participation can count toward students’ service-learning requirements.
Academic Intervention Clinic
The Academic Skills Clinic, a program sponsored by the HDC, provides school-aged children and adolescents with educational support in the areas of math and reading. Student clinicians conduct state-of-the-art academic evaluations, develop and implement a comprehensive intervention program, provide on-going progress monitoring, and consult with parents and teachers. The program is housed in the HDC with student clinicians also providing services in local elementary schools.

Center for Communication Disorders
The Center for Communication Disorders provides diagnostic and intervention services to clients ranging in age from infants to the elderly. Graduate and undergraduate student clinicians, under faculty supervision, work in the clinic with clients who have communication disorders of all types including problems with voice, stuttering, speech sound production, hearing, and language. The Center is located on the first floor of the Human Sciences and Services building and provides services at low cost to clients. Fees may be adjusted upon the recommendation of a faculty supervisor. Services are provided for a nominal fee to UW-Eau Claire faculty, staff, students, and their immediate family members. Contact Angela Sterling-Orth at 715-836-4186 for additional information or to make appointments.

Continuing Education
Continuing Education links the campus and the community by providing a variety of credit and noncredit learning opportunities. The unit, in cooperation with the University’s colleges, provides graduate and undergraduate courses both on- and off-campus in formats convenient to adult learners. Continuing Education courses are open to the general public. For additional information, call 715-836-3636 or visit the website at www.uwec.edu/ce.

STUDENT SERVICES
The full complement of student services is available on campus to graduate students. These are described on the Student Affairs and Dean of Students websites at www.uwec.edu/dos and www.uwec.edu/studentaffairs.

A graduate lounge and study area are set aside on the top floor of McIntyre Library. Individually assigned lockers are available in the lounge. The services of the library are described in a handbook which may be obtained at the circulation desk.

Academic Support Services includes: Advising, Testing, and New Student Initiatives, Academic Skills Center, Career Services, Office of Multicultural Affairs, and Services for Students with Disabilities. Staff in these areas will assist students with questions regarding areas of study, personal objectives, and career goals. Career Services provides information on career development and assists graduates in finding career opportunities appropriate to their specialization, training, and abilities. The staff is in contact with numerous college administrators, representatives of business and industry, government services, and health agencies, many of whom interview students on campus.

Special services are available to students with disabilities who provide documentation of need to the Services for Students with Disabilities Office, OL 2136. All academic buildings on campus are accessible.

Graduate students may apply for health insurance and may utilize the facilities of the Student Health Service. Counseling is available to any student needing assistance with personal problems. Counseling Services is located in OL 2122.

The UW-Eau Claire Children’s Nature Academy, a nationally accredited and state licensed child development center for the children of students, faculty, and staff, is operated by the University at the Priory location. Directed by professionals in early childhood education, the Academy is open from 7:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Evening care is also available Monday through Thursday 5:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. during Fall and Spring semesters. In addition to a preschool program, the Academy offers summer camps for children through 12 years of age.

Head Start is available for children 3-5 years of age who qualify for the program. A four year old Kindergarten (EC4T) is also available. Children are enrolled by application to the Director, 1190 Priory Road, phone 715-836-2178, or by completing an online application at www.uwec.edu/children.

MISSION AND OUTCOMES

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire provides graduate education in select programs that grow clearly from institutional undergraduate strengths and that meet identifiable regional and state needs. Graduate programs foster students’ intellectual development, contribute to the advancement of disciplines, and enhance students’ personal lives and their ability to contribute to their professions and communities. Graduate studies at UW-Eau Claire emphasize personal working relationships between faculty and students in a variety of learning situations.

A hallmark of graduate education is scholarly and creative activity, emphasizing discipline-specific research, the acquisition of new knowledge, or the application or transmission of existing knowledge. Expected outcomes for all UW-Eau Claire graduate programs are that graduates will have the ability to:

1. Demonstrate advanced mastery of the methodology, techniques, and practices specific to the field of study;
2. Excel in written and oral communication, with the ability to convey complex ideas clearly, consistently, and logically;
3. Demonstrate understanding and mastery for appropriately managing a range of general and discipline-specific ethical dilemmas;
4. Utilize the research or scholarship of the discipline and produce scholarly or creative products consistent with disciplinary standards.

Each of the Colleges is responsible for promoting high standards of scholarship, for offering professional preparation appropriate to societal needs, and for maintaining an appropriate balance between the academic and professional components of graduate programs.

GRADUATE FACULTY AND COUNCIL

The Graduate Faculty consists of about 400 faculty and academic staff who hold doctoral or appropriate terminal degrees, and who possess a broad array of special qualifications and backgrounds in their academic specialties.

The Graduate Faculty recommend to the Chancellor, and to the Board of Regents as appropriate, all major policies and programs relating to graduate studies.

The Graduate Council is a representative body of the Graduate Faculty and graduate students and acts on their behalf. The Graduate Council serves and acts to develop and maintain standards of academic quality in all graduate programs; to provide initiative and insight in developing graduate programs to meet current, new, and emerging needs; to formulate general academic policies and procedures relating to graduate programs in the University; to foster creativity and scholarship in graduate programs; to represent the interests of the Graduate Faculty and graduate students in the University; and to advise the Graduate Dean concerning the administration of graduate education.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

All graduate degree programs require a minimum of 30 credits of graduate course work (500 level and higher) in the area of specialization, with at least 15 of those credits in courses open only to graduate students (700 level). Many programs also require a written comprehensive examination, an oral examination, or both, and some programs also require a thesis, research paper, scholarly paper, or portfolio.

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP)

The Doctor of Nursing Practice degree option is for individuals pursuing education in advanced practice nursing. The DNP is a clinical doctorate designed to prepare nurses to assume leadership roles in the areas of advanced clinical practice (nurse practitioner or clinical... nurse specialist) or nursing administration. The American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) has determined that the DNP is the required graduate degree for those entering practice as clinical nurse specialists, nurse practitioners, and nurse administrators, effective in 2015. Both MSN-to-DNP (post-master’s) and BSN-to-DNP (post-baccalaureate) options are available.

Core and seminar and practicum courses at the 800 level address organizational and systems leadership, influencing health policy, evidence-based practice and research utilization, information systems and patient care technology, interprofessional collaboration, improving patient and population health outcomes and effecting change, and evaluating health outcomes. A DNP capstone project with presentation is required. Students complete a minimum of 1000 hours of clinical for the BSN-to-DNP option and a minimum of 450 hours of clinical for the MSN-to-DNP option.

Master of Arts (MA)

The Master of Arts program serves persons who already have substantial preparation in the discipline in which they seek a higher degree, and who wish to extend their knowledge and skills in their area of specialization for self-improvement, for professional roles, or for further graduate study.

The student must have substantial undergraduate preparation in the area of specialization of the degree program being pursued. A written comprehensive examination and an oral examination may be required.

A Master of Arts degree is offered in two fields:

- English
- History

See those sections in this catalog for further details.

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The purpose of the College of Business MBA program is to guide students in becoming effective leaders who possess broad, practical understanding of the business world and the dynamic, global environment within which it operates. The program is designed to develop each individual’s ability to recognize the needs of customers, employees, stockholders, and other organizational stakeholders; secure competitive advantage through emphasis on quality, technology, and innovation; communicate effectively and interact with members of a diverse, global work force and business environment; apply a wide variety of problem-solving tools and techniques to today’s complex problem situations; and manage an organization in a socially responsible and ethical manner.

The program is designed to meet the needs of individuals currently in the work force who wish to pursue an MBA on a part-time basis while continuing their full-time employment. To accommodate the needs of working students, classes are offered in the evening, online during the summer, and occasionally on Saturdays. See the MBA Program section of this catalog for further information and specific degree requirements.

Master of Education-Professional Development (MEPD)

The program for the Master of Education-Professional Development provides for the enhancement of professional competencies in education for experienced, employed educators. It is designed for individualized continuing education to assist educators in the development of competencies that relate specifically to their job needs and to their professional growth.

A specific emphasis is available for library science and media education. Other emphases may be selected from combinations of the following more general categories: curriculum development techniques, leadership, instructional techniques and technology, human relations/communications, evaluation techniques, research techniques, or educational foundations. Opportunity is also provided to strengthen skills and understandings in a teaching subject specialty.

The course, ES 788, Introduction to Educational Inquiry, is required. The remainder of the minimum of 30 required credits is to be selected from approved courses in departments offering graduate courses, with a maximum of 12 credits in the teaching subject specialty, and a maximum of nine credits in Independent Study.

Final projects include a choice of a written comprehensive examination, take-home examination, thesis, research paper/scholarly paper, or portfolio, as well as completion of an oral examination.
This program is offered by the Department of Education Studies. See those sections of this catalog for special admission requirements and further details.

Master of Science (MS)

The Master of Science program serves persons who already have substantial preparation in the discipline in which they seek a higher degree and who wish to extend their knowledge and skills in their area of specialization for self-improvement, for professional roles and credentials, or for further graduate study.

The student must have substantial undergraduate preparation in the area of specialization of the degree program being pursued. A written comprehensive examination or a thesis with oral examination is required.

A Master of Science degree is currently offered in one field:

Communication Sciences and Disorders

See that section in this catalog for further details.

Master of Science in Education (MSE)

The programs for the Master of Science in Education degree are designed to develop capabilities in special professional roles in the field of education. At least 30 credits of graduate work are required in the educational specialty of the degree program.

The MSE degree is offered in two areas:

School Psychology
Special Education

Certification in cognitive disabilities, early childhood: special education, emotional/behavioral disabilities, or learning disabilities may be obtained as part of the MSE in Special Education.

See those sections in this catalog for further details.

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

The Master of Science in Nursing degree program is designed to prepare nurses with a population focus in Adult-Gerontologic Health Nursing or Family Health Nursing to assume leadership roles in professional nursing. The core curriculum is designed to develop and increase students’ competencies in theory analysis and evaluation, concept clarification and development, research and refined skills in clinical inquiry, ethics, leadership, and analysis of contemporary issues. Building on the core curriculum, students apply new knowledge and skills in the clinical setting.

The program provides functional role preparation as a nurse educator. Required nursing courses focus on the functional dimensions of the role, its theory and expectations, and strategies for implementation.

A scholarly project with presentation, or thesis and an oral examination is required.

Beginning in 2015, the MSN no longer is a degree option for students pursuing the nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, or administration role preparations, in keeping with the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) decision to transition advanced practice nursing preparation to the Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree level. The last class of MSN students for the nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, and administration role preparations was admitted for the Summer of 2011; these students are needing to complete all MSN degree requirements prior to 2015. The MSN degree option will continue to be offered for students interested in the nursing education role preparation.

Master of Science in Teaching (MST)

The Master of Science in Teaching degree program serves students who have met requirements for licensure as teachers in their undergraduate study, and for teachers who seek a master's degree in a particular field of teaching. To be admitted to an MST program an applicant must have met all requirements for full certification to teach, usually in the area of specialization of the degree program to which admission is desired.

A minimum of 30 graduate credits is required and must be distributed as follows:

Area of Specialization (12-18 credits)

The area of specialization is usually the same field as the undergraduate major. For the MST, students must present a total of 42 credits (graduate and undergraduate) in the area of specialization if it is a single academic department, and 60 credits (graduate and undergraduate) if the area of specialization involves work in more than one department. Students who elect to do a thesis must have, in addition, at least 12 graduate credits in the area of specialization. Of the graduate credits in the area of specialization, at least half must be open only to graduate students.

Professional Education (9 credits)

To further develop understanding of contemporary educational theory and familiarity with research in education, at least nine credits of courses in education are required. A seminar course, concerned with application of research methods to problems of teaching, is required. Other professional education credits may be earned in any department of the College of Education and Human Sciences; courses in assessment, education policy and diversity in education are available.

Free Electives (6 credits)

These six credits may be taken in the area of specialization, the area of professional education, or any other area. In programs where such considerations as licensure requirements demand it, courses in the area of professional education can be specified.

The Master of Science in Teaching degree currently is available in three fields:

- Elementary Education
- English
- Reading

In the field of elementary education, students are required to complete one of the following: written comprehensive examination, take-home examination, thesis, research paper/scholarly paper, or portfolio, as well as an oral examination. A thesis and oral examination are required in the field of English. A portfolio and an oral examination are required in the field of reading.

See those sections of this catalog for further details.

Master of Social Work (MSW)

The University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Social Work offers its Masters in Social Work (MSW) program on the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire campus in cooperation with the Department of Social Work.

The MSW program offers a social problem and social issues focus to the education and preparation of students as advanced practitioners and leaders across the fields of social work practice. Students find that the teaching of practice, knowledge, values, and skills with an analytic approach fosters the ability to acquire and translate knowledge into sound professional social work practice with individuals, families, groups, communities, and organizations. The MSW program offered on the UW-Eau Claire campus is part-time and is designed to allow students who are not able to pursue full-time study to work toward an MSW degree on a structured time-extended basis.

Specialist in Education Degree (Ed.S.)

The Specialist in Education degree is offered in School Psychology. This three-year program includes two years of full-time on-campus study, and a one-year, full-time internship. After successful completion of the first year of the program (31 credits of study and a passing grade on a comprehensive examination), students are awarded the Master of Science in Education degree. The Ed.S. degree requires an additional 37 graduate credits beyond the MSE degree. By earning this degree, students meet all of the requirements for certification by the State of Wisconsin as a School Psychologist and become eligible for National Certification in School Psychology.

Credit-Bearing Graduate Certificate Programs

Graduate certificates may be earned by graduate degree-seeking students or by a specified audience from the community not pursuing a graduate degree. Guidelines and standards are identical for both groups. Graduate certificate programs require no fewer than 15 credits, and all credits required for the graduate certificate program must be graduate-level credits (500-level and above). No fewer than six credits must be taken at the 700 level. At least 50 percent of the credits applied to the graduate certificate program requirements must be taken through UW-Eau Claire. Departments, schools, or colleges proposing graduate certificate programs have the right to specify (a) admission requirements for entry into a certificate program, and (b) minimum GPA requirements for course and certificate completion.

See those sections of this catalog for further details.

LICENSURE TO TEACH

The MST-Reading, and the degree programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders, School Psychology, and Special Education lead to initial educator licensure, add-on licensure, or administrative licensure.

A licensure plan form is available from the department in which the student is seeking certification. A copy of this form must be filed in the Field Experience, Licensing and Certification Office (Brewer 151). It is recommended that the plan be filed early in one’s program so that it can be evaluated for the inclusion of all licensure requirements.

All licensure programs, except the MST-Reading, require either a student teaching or internship assignment. In addition, students must have a passing score on a Praxis II content exam in the area of certification, unless the field is exempted by the State Superintendent. The standardized examination and passing score shall be determined by the State Superintendent. Application forms for these assignments are available from and must be filed in the Field Experience, Licensing and Certification Office (Brewer 151). Students must apply for field experience assignments one year in advance. Applications must be filed by the last day of final examinations in December for a summer or first semester placement or by the last day of final examinations in May for a second semester placement.

Failure to meet application deadlines may result in a delay of the student teaching or internship assignment.

Candidates who satisfactorily complete all requirements in a teacher licensure program may ask the University to recommend them for teaching licenses.

ACCREDITATION

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Address: 230 South LaSalle Street
Suite 7-500
Chicago, Illinois 60604
Telephone: 800-621-7440

Programs which yield licensure for teaching or service in the public schools of Wisconsin are approved by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. Specific programs or individual units of the University are accredited or approved by various agencies.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

The application for admission to graduate programs must be submitted to the Admissions Office with an application fee of $56. Deadlines for application and supporting documentation are July 1, December 1, and May 1 for Fall, Spring, and Summer, respectively. Some degree programs may have earlier dates (see respective program descriptions).

The applicant must list all colleges and/or universities previously attended, and arrange to have one official transcript sent directly to the Admissions Office from each institution where you obtained a degree (except UW-Eau Claire); and from any institution from which you have completed course work necessary for admission to your graduate program or for graduate courses that you wish to have considered for transfer credit to apply toward your intended degree program at UW-Eau Claire. Current or former UW-Eau Claire students do not need to provide transcripts from UW-Eau Claire; however, submission of an application constitutes authorization for Admissions to request your UW-Eau Claire transcript from the Registrar. Additional transcripts may be required, particularly for certification and licensure programs, so please request to have these official transcripts sent as well. To be regarded as official, the transcript must bear the impression seal of the institution. All transcripts become a part of your permanent file and cannot be returned.

An application for admission also may be considered during an applicant’s last semester or summer session of undergraduate student. Admission to graduate study in such cases is conditional, pending satisfactory completion of the baccalaureate requirements and the student’s meeting of all other requirements for admission.

If you would like to be considered for a graduate assistantship, fellowship, or the Advanced Opportunity Program (AOP), the priority application date is March 1 for the following academic year. The Application for Graduate Assistantship and/or Fellowship can be found on the Admissions or Graduate Studies website, and should be submitted to the Office of Graduate Studies.

Graduate Application Fee Policy
A non-refundable graduate application fee of $56 shall be assessed by the University for the application for admission. The fee does not apply toward the student’s other tuition and fees. The fee is good for four full semesters (two years).

Graduate applicants may apply to one program at a time. There is no waiver of the application fee. If an applicant is applying for a second graduate degree, (the first from UW-Eau Claire), or if they have been previously admitted to and enrolled in a UW-Eau Claire graduate program, they will not be assessed the application fee again. If the first graduate degree is from any other institution, an application fee will be assessed. Students applying to be recategorized will not be assessed an application (processing) fee. Recategorization is an accepted graduate student requesting to change programs.
If an applicant is admitted, but does not enroll at any time during the first two years, they will need to reapply and update their application and pay a new application fee.

If an applicant is denied for one program and then wants to be considered for the same or a different program within two years of the receipt of the initial application fee, a new fee is not required.

Enrollment of Undergraduates
Upon the recommendation of the student’s adviser, course instructor, and chair of the department offering the course, a University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire undergraduate student may be allowed to enroll in a limited number of graduate courses, provided he or she has a 3.00 undergraduate GPA and has the approval of the College Dean. Qualified students may take up to, but not exceed, a total of nine credits of graduate-level course work. The graduate credits cannot be used to satisfy requirements for the bachelor’s degree. Application forms for enrollment in graduate courses as an undergraduate may be obtained from the Registrar’s Office.

International Student Admission
All international students whose native language is not English must submit an official Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of at least 550 for the paper-based test (or 79 Internet-based) or an International English Language Testing System (IELTS) overall band score of 7.0 for admission. Students with lower TOEFL/IELTS scores may be offered conditional admission to the university based on enrollment in the Intensive English Program.
Students can begin their degree program once they have achieved an appropriate level of English proficiency as determined by the Intensive English Program coordinator. Subject to the satisfactory completion of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Intensive English Program, and other conditions for admission, a student may be moved to full standing.

All international students are required to purchase accident and sickness insurance.

International graduate students are required to provide documents showing they have the necessary resources for complete funding for the anticipated duration of the graduate program.
International students must deposit $100 30 days prior to the anticipated date of initial enrollment.
Similar deposits will be required 30 days prior to each subsequent semester’s registration. The amount required is determined by University fees, room and board costs, accident and sickness insurance, and other anticipated expenses. The University may waive the required deposit in part or entirely if the student provides evidence of sponsorship by a governmental agency or other organization assuming complete responsibility for the financial needs of the student. International students who are awarded a scholarship or assistantship will have the amount of required deposit reduced by the amount of the scholarship or assistantship.
Although on-campus employment may be available, an international student should not plan to secure any finances through employment in the United States.
Special Auditors

Board of Regents policy makes it possible for students to audit courses at reduced costs as follows: Wisconsin residents may audit classes by paying only 30 percent of the normal per credit academic fee and non-residents may audit by paying 50 percent of the non-resident academic fee. In both cases any special course fees or materials are additional. Individuals enrolled as special students may take one course for credit (at the normal per credit resident or non-resident fee) and another as an auditor during the same semester.

Admission to a Degree Program

Admission to a particular degree program is based upon evaluation of the student’s academic record and previous experience by the graduate faculty of the department(s) offering the program. All applicants must have earned a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university. Upon admission to a degree program, the student is assigned an adviser who is a member of the graduate faculty of the department offering the program. Students must consult their adviser(s) regarding program planning and enrollment in courses.

Admission to particular degree programs may include additional requirements in regard to minimum undergraduate GPA, entrance examinations, or prerequisite courses. See requirements for admission to specific degree programs as described elsewhere in this catalog.

Status of Admission

Full Standing: Applicants whose undergraduate GPA from their baccalaureate degree granting institution is 2.75 (a grade of A equals four points) or higher or whose GPA for the last half of undergraduate work is 3.0 or higher may be admitted with full standing to a particular graduate program upon recommendation of the Program Director, College Dean, and Graduate Dean. Additional requirements may be specified by particular degree programs.

Conditional: Applicants whose undergraduate GPA falls below 2.75, or who are currently completing a baccalaureate degree, or who have not met the prerequisite requirements for admission to a program, may be admitted as conditional students upon recommendation of the Program Director, College Dean, and Graduate Dean, when other sufficient evidence of ability to complete graduate work is available. Additional conditions or requirements for admission also may be specified by particular degree programs.

Classification

Admitted: Persons admitted to a degree program are classified according to the degree they wish to pursue and according to the area of specialization elected in the degree program.

Graduate Special: Students wishing to take courses for graduate credit without admission to a particular graduate program may register as graduate specials. A student who fails to meet the minimum GPA requirement for admission also may be permitted to enroll as a graduate special. If application to a particular graduate program is made subsequently, credits earned as a graduate special student will be considered on the basis of appropriateness to the degree program. No more than nine credits earned as a graduate special student may later apply to degree requirements without prior approval of the appropriate Graduate Program Director. Individuals who wish to register as graduate special students in nursing courses should consult with the College of Nursing and Health Sciences Assistant Dean for Post Licensure Programs to receive permission to enroll. Graduate special students are not eligible for the financial aid programs described elsewhere in this catalog.

Once you have applied and are enrolled as a graduate special, you only need to reapply if you have not enrolled in any courses at UW-Eau Claire for three years.

Students who have previously been academically dismissed from a graduate program are not eligible to return to the University as a Special Student. Instead, they must go through the appeals process specified in their letter of dismissal.

Transfer of Credits Earned Prior to Admission

All college and university credits, including graduate credits, earned prior to admission must be reported on the application for admission and documented by means of one official transcript requested by the student from the Registrar of each institution previously attended; all transcripts must be sent directly from the institution(s) to the Admissions Office. Up to nine semester hours of previously earned graduate credits from another accredited institution may be considered for transfer in conjunction with evaluation of the application.
for admission. Graduate credits earned prior to admission, but not reported on the application for admission nor documented, will not be considered for transfer after admission. The limit of nine* semester hours of transfer credits includes both courses taken prior to and after admission.

*The BSN to DNP degree program is an exception to the nine credit transfer policy. A maximum of 20 credits of graduate transfer course work may be accepted for the BSN to DNP program.

Transfer of Credits Earned After Admission

Students who wish to take courses at another institution and transfer the credits to their approved graduate program must obtain permission to do so before enrolling in the courses. Forms for this purpose are available in the office of the Graduate Dean. Without prior permission, a student has no assurance that courses taken at another institution will be acceptable as part of the graduate program. The other institution at which the student wishes to earn graduate credits may provide a form for documentation by an official of the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire of the student’s graduate standing, allowing registration at the other graduate school for the purpose of earning credits to be transferred. If such a procedure is not available, the student may be required by the other institution to file application for admission.

The limit of nine* transfer credits includes both courses taken prior to admission and after admission. These credits must be earned from another regionally accredited institution that is offering a comparable graduate degree program. Only courses in which a B (GPA of 3.00) or above is earned and representing course content equivalent to that offered by the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire will be accepted and applied toward graduate degree programs. Transfer course grades are not computed in the resident GPA at UW-Eau Claire. No credit toward a graduate degree will be allowed for correspondence work.

*The BSN to DNP degree program is an exception to the nine credit transfer policy. A maximum of 20 credits of graduate transfer course work may be accepted for the BSN to DNP program.

Credits Earned in Programs Established through Inter-Institutional Agreements

Graduate credits taken in a program developed between UW-Eau Claire and one or more other institutions and established by a formal inter-institutional agreement will not be considered transfer credits under these guidelines.

Transfer of Extension Credits

Credits earned in extension courses sponsored by UW-Eau Claire and in off-campus (outreach) courses offered by UW-Eau Claire are not considered transfer credits by UW-Eau Claire.

Notification of Admission

Upon completion of review of the application materials, the Graduate Dean will notify the applicant in writing of the disposition of the application for admission. If the applicant is accepted, the written notice will indicate the student’s classification, status, any special qualifications regarding admission, and the student’s adviser(s). A decision regarding admission may be appealed to the Graduate Council, through the Graduate Dean, and the Graduate Dean may also initiate referral of individual cases to the Council. In all cases, the Graduate Dean will notify the applicant in writing of action taken on appeals or referrals.
ACADEMIC STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

Grading Systems

The graduate student may earn grades of A (A=Excellent), A-, B+, B (B=Good), B-, C+, C (C=Fair), C-, D+, D (D=Poor), D-, or F (F=Failing) in courses. Grade point values are assigned on a four-point system as follows: A=4.00, A-=3.67, B+=3.33, B=3.00, B-=2.67, C+=2.33, C=2.00, C-=1.67, D+=1.33, D=1.00, D-=0.67, and F=0.00. These grade point values, when multiplied by the number of course credits, give the total number of grade points earned for that particular course. Courses in which grades below C (GPA of 2.00) are earned are not applicable to degree requirements. Courses in which grades of C are earned may be applied toward degree requirements, providing the student has sufficient grades of A to achieve the required overall GPA of 3.00, or B average. All credits attempted in graduate courses at the University are utilized in computing the overall graduate GPA. Grades in transfer courses are not counted in the computation of the resident GPA at UW-Eau Claire.

Incomplete grades may be allowed in a course by the professor. An incomplete grade must be removed no later than the end of the regular semester following the term in which the incomplete was received, although the professor may set an earlier deadline. Grades of “incomplete” not removed by the deadline date are converted to a grade of F.

The letters PR indicate progress in the completion of the research paper and the thesis. The letters are used instead of a grade for courses numbered 795 and 799. Credit and a grade of “S” are recorded for these courses upon satisfactory completion of the oral examination and research paper/thesis.

Repetition of Courses

Graduate students may repeat no more than two courses previously taken for graduate credit, with the exception of “repeatable” courses. Any repetition including repetition of courses from which students withdrew with a mark of W must have approval of the student’s adviser, and the Program Director and College Dean of the program in which the student is enrolled. A given course may be repeated no more than once, with the exception of “repeatable” courses. The grade earned in the repetition of the course replaces the grade earned initially.

In order to repeat a course, approval must be obtained from the College Dean’s office before the time of registration. Students who have taken a course at the 300 or 400 level may not include that course at the 500 or 600 level in a graduate program, except in the case of special topic courses when the topic is not the same as that taken at the undergraduate level, or at the discretion of the program adviser.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U) Registration

In graduate course work, Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory (S/U) registration is allowed only for courses that explicitly require S/U registration in the UW-Eau Claire graduate catalog. S/U registration is not permitted for any non-clinical, non-practicum, or non-project based graduate courses.

S/U Grades. The grade of S is equivalent to at least a B or above in the standard grading system; it denotes that the student’s work was satisfactory and that credit is granted for the course. The grade of S is not computed into the student’s semester and resident GPAs.

The grade of U is equivalent to a B- or below in the standard grading system. No credit is granted. The grade of U is not computed into the student’s semester and resident GPAs.

Retention in the College

Graduate students, including both admitted and graduate special registrants, are expected to maintain an overall 3.00 GPA. Students whose GPA falls below 3.00 are placed on probation. Students placed on probation must raise their overall graduate GPA to 3.00 or above at the conclusion of the term in which they complete their next six graduate credits. Those who achieve the 3.00 are removed from probation and assigned the status of full standing. Students who are on probation and who do not achieve the 3.00 GPA upon completion of the next six graduate credits will be academically dismissed.

MBA program students may be subject to additional requirements; see the MBA program section of this catalog for details.

Academic Load

Students registered for nine or more credits are considered full-time graduate students. Students registered for at least four credits but less than nine credits are considered half-time.
The University standard is that no more than one graduate credit may be taken per week of attendance during summer session. Students registered for six or more credits in the summer session are considered full-time graduate students. Students enrolled for three to five-and-a-half credits are considered half-time.

Enrollment in at least one thesis credit or in an applied field project is also considered full-time enrollment for financial aid and enrollment certification purposes.

Graduate students may register for no more than 15 credits during a semester and no more than one credit per week for the summer session. Registrations in excess of these limits are appropriate only under very rare circumstances and are possible only with the approval of the College Dean. MAT students enrolling for the professional semester should contact the Dean to have the automatic overload coded on their records.

Withdrawal from the University

Students intending to terminate their study during a semester when they are registered for courses must officially withdraw from the University. Withdrawal from all courses in which a student is registered, even if only one course, constitutes withdrawal from the University and requires following this procedure.

Withdrawal from Courses

Forms for withdrawal from a course are available through the Registrar’s Office. Withdrawals from full-semester courses during the first two weeks of classes of spring or fall semesters will not be entered on the record. Withdrawals from classes through the tenth week of classes will yield a record of W. The student may not withdraw from classes after the beginning of the eleventh week of classes. If there are unusual circumstances beyond the student’s control which force withdrawal, the student may request permission for late withdrawal from the College Dean.

A student who stops attending a course and fails to withdraw officially may receive a temporary grade of XF from the instructor which will be converted to an F on the record if no extenuating circumstances exist.

Similar deadlines apply to eight-week courses in the summer session: no record for withdrawals the first week of classes; W for withdrawals during the second to fifth week; and no withdrawals after the fifth week. These deadlines are prorated for short courses and workshops.

The dates of these deadlines are displayed on students’ MyBlugold Student Center.

Duration and Time Limits of Graduate Programs

While some graduate degree programs can be completed in an academic year, it may take longer to fulfill all requirements. For students who must satisfy undergraduate deficiencies or prerequisites, additional time will be required. Degree programs such as those leading to the MBA, MAT, and MSN degree require longer than one academic year.

A period of seven years is allowed from the beginning to the completion of a graduate degree or a graduate certificate program; that is, the complete degree plan including all transfer credits allowed, must be fulfilled within seven years. The beginning date of the semester or summer session of enrollment for the earliest credits counted toward degree requirements marks the beginning of the seven-year period.

No extensions of this period will be granted except for unusual health reasons, leaves of absence for military purposes, or other extenuating circumstances approved by the Graduate Dean. A petition for extension may be filed with the Graduate Dean.

Written Comprehensive Examination

Many graduate degree programs require successful performance on a written comprehensive examination toward the close of the student’s work for the degree. The written comprehensive examination consists of questions over broad areas of study within the field of the student’s area of specialization. The student is expected to demonstrate knowledge and skills appropriate to the master’s level in integrating facts, concepts, and arguments from diverse sources into a systematic, well-reasoned, well-written narrative.

The comprehensive examination is prepared and evaluated by the graduate faculty of the department(s) in the student’s area of specialization. The scoring/grading standard is determined by the department(s), and will be made available to the student prior to the exam, upon request.
The Program Director of the program reports to the Graduate Dean the results of the examination as “satisfactory” or “unsatisfactory.” A student whose performance is unsatisfactory may repeat the examination at the next regularly scheduled administration; students are not permitted to take the examination more than once in the same semester or summer session. A student who has taken the examination twice with unsatisfactory results will be academically dismissed from the program.

A student may take the written comprehensive examination during or after the semester in which all courses in the area of specialization are completed if an approved degree plan is on file prior to the examination. Notification of intent to take the examination must be filed with the Graduate Dean at the beginning of the semester or summer session. The examination is administered by the graduate program no later than the eleventh week of the semester during the academic year and four weeks prior to the end of the summer session. The result is reported to the Graduate Dean not later than seven working days afterward, and the Graduate Dean notifies the student in writing not later than three working days after receiving the report from the Program Director.

Research Paper or Thesis

For degree programs requiring or allowing the option of a research paper or thesis, a description of acceptable topics and the precise nature of the requirements is provided in the departmental program descriptions. As part of their approved degree plan, students completing a thesis should register for thesis credits (courses numbered 799), and students completing a research paper should register for research paper credits (courses numbered 795). With the approval of their adviser, students may repeat these courses multiple times until they complete the thesis/project. A student may be academically dismissed from a program as a result of unsatisfactory progress on the thesis or research paper. The mark of PR rather than a grade is recorded for thesis credits (courses numbered 799) or research paper credits (courses numbered 795). Credit and a grade of “S” are recorded for these courses upon satisfactory completion of the oral examination and research paper/thesis. Unless some other guide is specified by the department, the latest edition of The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Thesis Manual governs the writing and form of the thesis or research paper. Copies of the manual are available in the Graduate Dean’s office or on the Graduate Studies website. At least one* copy of the unbound, approved, final typed thesis or research paper must be submitted to the Graduate Dean no later than one week prior to the last day of classes of the semester or summer session in which the student plans to graduate. Please refer to the Graduate Studies Timetable on the Graduate Studies website for exact deadlines.

* Please refer to the “Thesis Dissemination Consent Form” on the Graduate Studies website for the different options for submitting a thesis or research paper.

Academic Integrity

Graduate students must uphold the highest standard of integrity for their work and foster a personal and social ethic of honesty that meets academic and professional challenges as well as the needs of a democratic society and a diverse world. One of UW-Eau Claire’s expectations for graduate students is to avoid academic dishonesty in all forms through understanding the ethical standards of the university and the discipline.

Academic misconduct, intentional or unintentional, erodes the integrity of the pursuit of knowledge, which is primary to UW-Eau Claire’s mission. Any act of academic misconduct that results in undue advantage or violates the spirit of authorship is sanctionable. Section 14.03 of the Student Services and Standards handbook describes both the process to be followed and the variety of sanctions that may be imposed by the instructor or program director in instances of academic misconduct. In the case of a finding of cheating or plagiarism on any graduate program project, examination or paper—including, but not limited to the comprehensive examination and graduate thesis—such action will result in expulsion from the graduate program or revocation of an awarded degree.

USE OF HUMAN SUBJECTS IN RESEARCH

Federal regulations and University policy require that research projects involving human subjects be designed to protect the rights of the subjects, the researcher, and the University. This pertains to projects for classes on research methodology, independent studies, and thesis research as well as faculty/student research collaborations. Each proposal involving human subjects and its provisions for their protection must be reviewed and approved by the Institutional Review Board (IRB) for the Protection of Human Subjects prior to initiation of the work. Some low-risk studies at the undergraduate level are covered by an instructor who is certified to provide the basics of human protection to a given course. However, at the graduate level, research projects involving human subjects need IRB committee approval, an on-line process which starts with a tutorial on human subjects protection.

Research on regular and special education instructional strategies and research on the effectiveness of or comparison of instructional techniques, curricula, or classroom management methods are among the types of projects that may be handled by an expedited review process. For more information on the IRB process, see the manual Policies and Procedures for Protection of Human Subjects in Research, available electronically at www.uwec.edu/ORSP/IRB.

For specific help in submitting a proposal to the IRB, see What to Submit to the IRB at the same website.

For additional communication, contact the chair of the UW-Eau Claire Institution Review Board for the Protection of Human Subjects, Schofield 17, phone 715-836-3405.

USE OF ANIMALS IN RESEARCH

All students involved in the care or use of vertebrate animals and all facilities used for such animals must operate within the guidelines of the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals. Copies of the Guide and other pertinent materials may be obtained from the Chair of the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee in the Department of Biology, 715-836-4166.

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

Graduate courses are offered at a variety of times, both on-campus and online. The schedule of classes is usually available online in March for the fall semester, October for the winterim session and spring semester, and in November for the summer session.

REGISTRATION IN COURSES
Students admitted to a particular graduate program are eligible to register early in the priority registration period. Students who are otherwise qualified but have not been admitted may also register early as graduate special students during priority registration.

Dates of registration and detailed instructions for registering are available on the Web in advance of the beginning of each registration period.

COURSE NUMBERS
Courses numbered 500-699 are courses offered for undergraduate (300-499) as well as graduate credit. Graduate students in such courses are required to meet expectations beyond those required of undergraduates. These expectations will vary and may include but are not limited to additional readings, oral presentations, additional or more sophisticated experiments or research, and additional written work. Students who have taken a course at the 300 or 400 level may not include that course at the 500 or 600 level in a graduate program, except in the case of special topics courses when the topic is not the same as that taken at the undergraduate level or at the discretion of the program adviser.

Courses numbered 700 or higher are open only to graduate students.

ASSISTANTSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS
Assistantship and fellowship application materials may be obtained from the Admissions Office or online at the Graduate Studies website.

Initial assistantship and fellowship awards are made in early spring. The deadline for any subsequent competition for filling assistantships or fellowships after initial awards are made will be posted by the Graduate Dean. Applications for other forms of aid should be submitted as early as possible.

Graduate students are considered eligible for assistantships or fellowships if enrolled in a minimum of six graduate credits for assistantships, three graduate credits for fellowships, or four graduate credits for AOP grants. Enrollment in at least one thesis credit or in an applied field project is also considered full-time enrollment for financial aid and enrollment certification purposes.

If you would like to be considered for a graduate assistantship, fellowship, or the Advanced Opportunity Program (AOP), the priority application date is March 1 for the following academic year. The Application for Graduate Assistantship and/or Fellowship can be found on the Admissions or Graduate Studies websites, and should be submitted to the Office of Graduate Studies.

Graduate Assistantships
Graduate assistantships are available to graduate students who have been admitted in “full standing” to a degree program. Both full-time and part-time assistantships are available. A graduate student who is awarded a full-time assistantship will work twenty hours per week for an academic department and must take at least six credit hours but no more than ten credit hours per semester.

University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Foundation Fellowships
University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Foundation Fellowships are awarded on the basis of scholarship and scholarly potential. Fellowship recipients must be admitted in full standing to a degree program or be eligible for admission upon completion of the baccalaureate degree. The student must take at least three credit hours during the fall and spring semesters and one credit hour during the summer session.

Advanced Opportunity Program (AOP) Grants
Advanced Opportunity Program grants are for under-represented minority graduate students, and economically disadvantaged non-minority graduate students who are U.S. Citizens or permanent residents. All AOP recipients must maintain good academic standing, make satisfactory academic progress in their graduate program, and demonstrate financial need. In the semester during which the award is received, recipients must carry an academic load of at least four credit hours (three credit hours during the summer session), or be enrolled in at least one thesis credit. To be considered for an AOP grant, students must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with the Office of Financial Aid, and complete the AOP application with the Office of Graduate Studies. Out-of-state students who receive an AOP grant may also be eligible to receive a non-resident tuition remission the semester or session in which the grant is received. Preference is given to Wisconsin residents and full-time students.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Consideration for financial aid will be given following admission to a particular graduate program. An applicant who is completing a baccalaureate degree may be awarded graduate aid pending verification of successful completion of the degree. Applicants for financial aid are urged to submit their applications as early as possible. To apply for aid, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which is available online at: www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students must be enrolled on at least a half-time basis (four credits during fall or spring semester, three credits during summer session, or a minimum of one thesis credit) to be eligible for financial aid. Graduate students may be awarded one or a combination of the following types of financial aid.

Work Study

Work study is available to graduate students who complete a FAFSA and who demonstrate financial need. Graduate students’ job responsibilities are generally of a more complex nature and thus may be paid at a higher wage rate than undergraduate students. Both on- and off-campus work study positions are available.

Ford Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loan

The Ford Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan is available to graduate students who are enrolled at least half-time in a degree-seeking program (the Ford Federal Subsidized Direct Loan is no longer available to graduate students). Eligible students may borrow up to their financial aid budget (minus subsidized loan eligibility or other financial aid resources received) per year for graduate study not to exceed $20,500. Maximum accumulated indebtedness for graduate students receiving unsubsidized loans is $138,500. The interest accrues on the loan while the student is still in school. Students may choose to add the interest that accrues to their principal; however, this may be an expensive option.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AID

International Student Tuition Remission Scholarships.

The value of International Student Tuition Remission Scholarships may equal up to the non-resident cost of tuition. This scholarship may be available to international students in good academic standing.
TUITION RECIPROCITY—MINNESOTA/WISCONSIN

The current reciprocity agreement between Minnesota and Wisconsin enables a Minnesota resident to attend Wisconsin public institutions of higher education at rates approximating tuition prevailing in the Minnesota State University System. Those wishing to take advantage of this tuition remission must apply each year well in advance of the beginning of the Fall Semester. Approval covers the full year (including Interim and Summer Sessions). Application forms are available in Minnesota high schools, in the UW-Eau Claire Registrar’s Office, or from the Reciprocity Office, Higher Education Coordinating Commission, 400 Capitol Square Building, 550 Cedar Street, St. Paul, MN 55101.

FEE SCHEDULE

A fee schedule is established each year. Fees are published in the schedule of classes for each session. The determination of student level (undergraduate or graduate) for the purpose of fee assessment is based on the student’s classification. A student who registers for graduate credit will be classified as a graduate student for the term and will be assessed graduate-level fees for all course work. Exceptions may be made for undergraduates taking graduate courses in accordance with the policy described in this catalog (see Enrollment of Undergraduates in Admissions section).

DEGREE PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

A complete description of the program requirements for each degree is available upon request from the office of the College and/or Graduate Dean or the department offering the program. General requirements of programs are described in the section of this catalog concerning degrees offered and in the sections concerning specific disciplines and specializations. Students should become familiar with such requirements as research seminars, written comprehensive examinations, research paper or thesis options, oral examinations, and with the deadlines when these requirements must be met. While faculty advisers are responsible for assisting students in the development of their programs, it is the student’s responsibility to know and to meet all the requirements for a specific degree.

GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAM PLAN

Graduate students admitted to a degree program should file a graduate degree program plan with the Graduate Dean by the third week of the semester in which the student will complete 15 credits. The degree plan must be filed and approved before the term in which graduation is anticipated.

GRADUATION

Each candidate for a graduate degree must apply for graduation via MyBlugold Campus by the end of the first week of classes of the semester or summer session during which the student expects to complete requirements for the degree. Graduate students must be admitted in “full standing” to a specific degree program to be eligible for graduation.

Students who have completed all enrollments for credits required for the degree and are working only on a thesis or research paper and/or taking comprehensive examinations are required to enroll for “graduation only” (courses numbered 798) or another graduate credit during the semester in which they will be completing these degree requirements for graduation. The enrollment fee for “graduation only” will be equal to the established fee for one credit.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Candidates for graduation are encouraged to attend commencement ceremonies, which are held two times during the calendar year: at the close of the fall and spring semesters of the academic year. Caps, gowns, and hoods must be worn by all graduates.

In order to participate in a commencement ceremony, students must file an application for graduation and must meet at least one of the following conditions: (1) completion of all requirements for the graduate degree, or (2) current enrollment in the courses necessary to complete all requirements, or (3) completion of all degree requirements with exception of a mandatory internship or other field placement course requiring no more than six credits. Students who will complete all requirements for the degree during the first Three-Week Summer Session are August graduates, but may request permission to attend the May commencement ceremony. Students completing all requirements for the degree in January may attend the prior December ceremony; and students completing all requirements in August may attend the following December ceremony.

TRANSCRIPTS
An official transcript of a student’s record will be issued by the Registrar’s Office at the student’s written request. No transcripts are released (except when requested by advisers or administrative officers within the University) without the permission of the student. An official transcript cannot be issued until all admission and financial obligations to the University have been met in full.

Unofficial transcripts are available to students for advising purposes and for applying for admission to professional programs. Students may also receive a degree audit report which is a report of a student’s progress toward fulfilling degree requirements. All documents are available via MyBlugold.

ADVISING OF STUDENTS
Assistance, information, and counsel are provided by departments offering graduate programs, and by the office of the College Dean. Upon admission to a program, each graduate student is assigned an adviser who is a member of the graduate faculty and who shares the student’s area of interest. Admitted and graduate special students can obtain advising on an informal basis.

STUDENT PETITIONS
Graduate students may petition the Graduate Dean for review of decisions concerning their degree requirements or academic standing. The petition must be in writing and must include justification for the petition, such as extenuating circumstances and pertinent facts not available for consideration in the initial decision.

The Human Development Center (HDC) is an interdisciplinary clinic working with individuals and families from western Wisconsin. Under the direct supervision of faculty supervisors, graduate student clinicians from Communication Sciences and Disorders, Education Studies (Reading), Nursing, School Psychology, Special Education, and Social Work provide assessment, intervention, and consultation services to children, adolescents, young adults, and families. The HDC offers faculty and students the opportunity to collaborate with other disciplines in clinical as well as research areas. Cooperative and individual research projects are encouraged. Major research projects are conducted by faculty members with assistance from graduate assistants employed at the HDC, or by graduate students working with faculty on theses.

Students participate in the HDC as part of assessment or practicum courses that are offered within the various participating departments. An average of 70 graduate students participate directly in interdisciplinary assessment, intervention, and consultation activities each year.

There are five additional instructional personnel in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders who hold the doctoral or master's degree and a Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Graduate faculty members and the other instructional personnel teach some academic courses in Communication Sciences and Disorders and are clinical instructors of students enrolled in practicum experiences.

PROGRAMS
MS—Communication Sciences and Disorders

The program leading to the degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders is designed to prepare the student to function independently as a speech-language pathologist within the profession of communication disorders. To accomplish that objective, it is necessary that the student develop knowledge and/or competencies in several areas: (1) normal speech, hearing, and language development and behavior; (2) nature, evaluation, and management in various work settings of the disorders of speech, hearing, and language in children and adults; and (3) investigative procedures in communication disorders.

Completion of a master's degree is required prior to earning certification in speech-language pathology from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and prior to earning a license from the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction for employment in public schools. Almost all employment in speech-language pathology requires the master's degree. The master's degree program in speech-language pathology at this University is accredited by the Council on Academic Accreditation of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and is approved by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. There is no program in audiology at UW-Eau Claire.

Practicum experience is planned to serve the needs and interests of graduate students in communication sciences and disorders. They may obtain a diversity of clinical experience through the Center for Communication Disorders on campus and its many affiliated practicum sites. Under the supervision of qualified University personnel and qualified on-site employees at affiliated practicum sites elsewhere, students have opportunities to encounter clients ranging in age across the lifespan who exhibit all types of communication disorders. The affiliated practicum sites are varied, including hospitals, clinics, community agencies, and schools.

To be considered for admission, an applicant must meet the following minimal criteria: (1) a baccalaureate degree, preferably including a major in communication sciences and disorders; (2) a minimum of 30 earned semester credits in communication sciences and disorders coursework prior to matriculation into the graduate program; (3) a resident and total GPA of 2.75 and a GPA of 3.00 in communication sciences and disorders coursework; (4) a grade of B or above in any graded practicum experience; and (5) submission of all required application materials prior to the application deadline, which is usually February 1st. These application materials include: application to the CSD department, university application with official undergraduate transcripts, three letters of recommendation and GRE scores.

The fact that a student has met the minimal criteria listed above does not guarantee admission to the program. The enrollment in the graduate program is limited to a maximum number of students determined annually by the program faculty. In recent years, the number of students admitted annually has been 16 to 20. Applications for admission are reviewed only once per year in the spring semester. Students begin their graduate programs as full-time students during the fall semester following admission.

The master's degree program requires successful completion of at least 54 CSD graduate semester credits. Each student must complete the following academic courses in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at the graduate level unless equivalent courses have been taken previously: 648, 706, 715, 716, 725, 726, 729, 737, 748, 754, and 774 (26 credits total). A student must enroll in six clinical practicum credits: CSD 769 or 771. In addition, each graduate student completes two externships (12 credits for the two externships combined), which may be located in schools (CSD 780) and/or rehabilitation settings (CSD 781). Prior to the externship, the student must complete the methods course for that setting (CSD 749 and/or 750). Altogether there are 18 required clinical practicum credits in the graduate program, including externships and practicum enrollments. The remaining credits in the graduate program may be from a list of designated elective courses shown below. To summarize the graduate curriculum, the curriculum includes: 26 credits in specific academic coursework; 18 credits in clinical experiences (practica and externships); at least four credits of electives from this list of courses: CSD 673, 731, 732, 746, 747, and 799; other elective credits from the above list or these: CSD 521, 526, 552, 558, 578, 610, 611, 640, 695, 730, 745, 749, 750, 793, 797. Typical program duration encompasses four semesters and the summer session midway through the program. Students must enroll in a full-time schedule unless special permission is granted by the Communication Sciences and Disorders graduate faculty to work toward the degree on a part-time basis.

Students may elect either a thesis or non-thesis option. All students must successfully complete a written comprehensive examination prior to graduation, except students writing theses.

COURSES

PROGRAMS
MST—Elementary Education
For those engaged in elementary/middle school teaching or supervision, the graduate degree in elementary/middle education is designed to provide broad, practical, and up-to-date information about, and analysis of, educational issues. It offers the potential for guided research, curriculum development, and specialization in topics of interest to the student. Course offerings are constantly being reevaluated and refined to reflect contemporary aspects of methodology, theory, and knowledge in the field. In addition, new courses are being developed as appropriate.

The basic goal of the master degree program in elementary education is the development of competencies which will enable a teacher to operate more effectively in varying elementary/middle school instructional roles. More specifically, graduates of the MST program in elementary/middle education will be better equipped to serve as teachers in schools with various organizational designs. They can prepare for new roles as team leaders or as members of a team.

Requirements of the program include: (a) minimum of 30 semester credits in graduate courses, of which 15 credits must be in courses open only to graduate students (700 and higher), with overall GPA of 3.00; (b) ES 730 or 738, ES 788, and ES 740, only if the thesis option is chosen; (c) minimum of 15 semester credits in area of specialization (cluster of courses selected in consultation with adviser based on student's educational objectives); (d) minimum of six semester credits in Professional Education to include ES 730 or 738, and 788; (e) minimum of six semester credits of free electives (may be in area of specialization, professional education, or any other area); and (f) an approved degree program plan. The final project for all candidates is a choice of one of the following options: (1) a standard written comprehensive examination, (2) a take-home written comprehensive examination, (3) a portfolio, or (4) a scholarly paper/research paper, or thesis. For all candidates, an oral examination must be successfully passed prior to graduation.

A teacher pursuing the MST in elementary education may specialize in many areas of the curriculum, such as science, mathematics, social sciences, language arts, theatre arts, and gifted and talented.

MST—Reading

Designed for secondary and elementary teachers, this program provides training in the teaching of reading leading to licensure as a Reading Teacher (Lic. 316) and Reading Specialist (Lic. 17) in the state of Wisconsin. A prerequisite for admission to the program is a Wisconsin teacher's license based upon the bachelor's degree.

The professional education component contains four specific requirements: an education research course, ES 788; a language development course, CSD 311/511; a learning disabilities course, Sped 330/530 or Sped 400/600 (for Elementary Education majors) or Sped 300/500 (for Secondary Education majors); and a children/adolescent literature course, Lmed 305/505 for Elementary Education majors or Lmed 306/506 for Secondary Education majors or Lmed 730 for either certification.

The area of specialization component requires: ES 705, 706, 726, 731, 746, 753, 765, and 768.

If the individual's program permits free electives, free electives may be chosen under the guidance of one's adviser. A minimum of 30 credits is required for the degree program. A portfolio is required for the 316 and 17 licenses by Wisconsin DPI. Therefore, the recommended final project for all MST-Reading candidates is a portfolio. For all candidates, an oral examination must also be successfully passed prior to graduation.

Master of Education—Professional Development

The program assists participants in development of professional competencies in education. A specific concentration is available for library science and media education. Other emphases may be selected from combinations of the following: curriculum development techniques, instructional techniques and technology, human relations/communications, evaluation techniques, computer education, middle/junior high school education, research techniques, and educational foundations. Opportunity also is provided to strengthen competencies in a teaching content specialty.

In addition to meeting the general requirements for admission to the graduate school, applicants to the program must provide: (a) documented commitment to teaching or education-related profession (teaching certification, statement from supervisor, or equivalent); (b) a minimum of two years teaching experience or equivalent; (c) a resume of career-related experiences; (d) a statement of professional aspirations and related needs; and (e) a proposed program of study, including a statement of purposes or goals reflecting needs and courses planned to achieve the purposes.

The program is offered by the Education Studies Department with assistance from other departments offering graduate study. Participants are assigned an adviser and a committee of at least two other graduate faculty members, including at least one member from a department other than Education Studies, is required to assist in planning and carrying out the program of study. The purpose of the advising procedure is to plan individually with participants and thereby devise a professional development program in accord with the individual's particular aspirations and goals. Applicants to the ME-PD program should note that this advising procedure, and therefore the entire admissions procedure, takes considerable time and should take this into account when submitting applications.

Requirements of the program include ES 788, Introduction to Educational Inquiry. The remainder of the 30 required minimum credits are to be selected from courses in the College of Education.
and Human Sciences and departments in other colleges offering supportive graduate courses, with a maximum of 12 credits in one teaching content specialty and a maximum of nine credits in Independent Study. At least one-half of the credits in the program must be in graduate only courses (700-level courses). Alternatives of research paper, thesis, or equivalent credits in courses are available. The final project for all candidates is a choice of one of the following options: (1) a standard written comprehensive examination, (2) a take-home written comprehensive examination, (3) a portfolio, or (4) a scholarly paper/research paper or thesis. For all candidates, an oral examination must be successfully passed prior to graduation.

THESIS OPTIONS

In order to best meet the diverse needs of master's degree students, four thesis options are available within the program.

Critical Interpretive Thesis (six crs.): The traditional critical interpretive thesis is an option for all graduate students. The critical thesis will consist of an argument of approximately 60 pages that the student will complete under the guidance of a committee of two English department graduate faculty members and one outside graduate faculty member in a related field, and which the student will defend in an oral exam. Writing the thesis provides experience in designing and executing a sustained research-based writing project that requires effective independent research, writing, and revision. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the field by including a literature review appropriate to the project and a sustained, theoretically informed main argument. The project increases the student's depth of knowledge in a chosen area of inquiry within English Studies.

Scholarly Publishable Paper (three crs.): An alternative option for the exceptional student in the MA—English: Literature and Textual Interpretation or the MST programs is the scholarly publishable paper. A student may, with the approval of the Director of Graduate English and an English graduate faculty member, produce a scholarly paper of publishable caliber. The publishable paper will typically originate from a writing project completed in a graduate seminar course or an independent study experience. It will consist of an advanced work of textual criticism of approximately 25-30 pages that the student will complete under the guidance of two English department graduate faculty members and one outside graduate faculty member in a related field, and which the student will defend in an oral exam. The project will include an explicit and compelling, if brief, argument for the contribution the article will make to prevailing disciplinary conversations. The paper will make a rhetorically sophisticated and theoretically informed argument. The project will demonstrate that the student has achieved familiarity with the audience expectations of relevant publications. This work must be submitted to a peer-reviewed publication to qualify as completed. This option will give students experience in preparing the kind of publication they will be expected to produce as practicing scholars in literary criticism, including the research and argumentation skills necessary to produce a rigorous and compelling textual analysis.

Students writing a publishable paper to complete their degree must take a minimum of 30 course credits in addition to three thesis credits.

Creative Thesis (six crs.): A student enrolled in the MA—English: Writing program may offer six credits of creative work consisting of a minimum of 30 pages of original poetry or 75 pages of original prose or drama to complete the program. These creative theses, which must include an introduction, will... demonstrate a student's ability to produce work of a publishable caliber. In order to be eligible for this option, students must acquire the approval of two members from the creative writing graduate faculty or, as appropriate to the project, the approval of one graduate faculty member from science and technical writing and one graduate faculty member from creative writing. The student will work under the guidance of a committee of two English department graduate faculty members and one outside graduate faculty member in a related field and will defend the thesis in an oral exam.

Pedagogy Paper (three crs.):

Students in our MA or MST programs who are currently working in the field as middle or high school teachers may use this option to explore a teaching question related to textual analysis and/or production in English that has emerged from their graduate studies. The project will consist of a paper of approximately 25-30 pages intended for other practitioners in the field, which the student will complete under the guidance of one specialist in English Education, one English department faculty member who is not in English Education, and one outside faculty member in a field related to the study, and which the student will defend in an oral exam. The study will bring contemporary practices of textual analysis and/or production to bear on classroom practice, and it must include a review of literature that theoretically informs the research question and justifies the selected mode of inquiry. This option will provide middle and high school teachers a bridge from the study of textual analysis and/or production to classroom practice.

Students writing a pedagogy paper to complete their degree must take a minimum of 30 course credits in addition to three thesis credits.

COURSES

Students who have taken a course at the 300- or 400-level may not include that course at the 500- or 600-level in a graduate program, except in the cases of creative writing workshops and special topics courses when the topic is not the same as that taken at the undergraduate level. Questions regarding course restrictions for graduate students should be directed to the appropriate department office.

A significant contribution above and beyond that of the undergraduate students will be expected of all graduate students enrolled in 500- and 600-level courses.

Whenever possible, the instructor should meet with all enrolled graduate students to explain this requirement and consult with the students as to what specific form this requirement will take.

Graduate students, upon consultation with the instructor, may be required to do up to 50 percent more reading and/or writing than undergraduate students.

Graduate students, upon consultation with the instructor, may also be asked, either in place of or in addition to the above requirements, to participate in research, class presentations, or other special projects.

Graduate credit may be earned in each of the following modes:

- Traditional Classroom Setting. This mode includes double-numbered courses on the 500-600 level, seminars or courses on the 700 level, and coursework earned in areas outside English.
- Tutorially Supervised Study. Tutorials are available in any of the topical areas identified under seminar and course headings at the 700 level, with the exception of English 711 and 715, when they are not offered as classroom courses. Before registering in a tutorial, students must apply to an instructor who specializes in the area to be studied and receive his/her permission. Tutorial Contract forms, along with a list of specific courses, are available through the English department office. Tutorials may be used for no more than six credit hours.
- Individual Research. This mode includes Engl 796, Directed Studies; Engl 797, Independent Study; and Engl 799, Thesis.

Course Scheduling.

A tentative schedule of 700-level offerings for 2013-2015 includes:

- 2013-2014: 711, 715, 721, 743, 753, 779
- 2014-2015: 711, 715, 721, 723, 769, 789

Enrollment in 700-level courses requires admission to the program or the consent of the graduate director.

To help students with their degree planning, the department provides a tentative semester-by-semester course list and a summer course list.
Prior to each semester’s registration, the Graduate Director provides more detailed descriptions of upcoming offerings. These are available on the Web and in the department office.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ADMISSION TO DEGREE PROGRAMS IN HISTORY

1. Applicants must hold a bachelor’s degree with a minimum of 24 semester credits of undergraduate history. The department strongly recommends at least 30 semester credits.
2. A GPA of 3.00, or 3.15 in the second half of all undergraduate work and a 3.30 in the history concentration.
3. A letter of intent from prospective student in which the student explains his or her academic and career goals and expectations.
4. Three letters of recommendation by professors who are familiar with the applicant’s past work and potential to do graduate work. These letters may also be used for applying for graduate assistantships and fellowships.
5. Completion of an undergraduate research seminar involving the writing of a major research paper (minimum 10 pages preferred), a copy of which should accompany the application, together with a letter from the supervising professor. This letter may be counted as one of the three letters of recommendation. (A student meeting the above criteria, but not this one, may be admitted conditionally, and must take Hist 488 and 489 at the beginning of enrollment in the program. Conditional status is removed upon completion of Hist 488 and 489 with grades of B or above. The four undergraduate credits involved are in addition to the 30 graduate credits required for the degree.)

Further Notes to Applying Students
1. It is strongly recommended that a student have completed two years of foreign language study at the college level or its equivalent. It is further recommended that the language be related to the intended area of concentration.
2. The department may consider admission of a student whose GPA and/or other qualifications do not meet all those specified above where there is convincing evidence that he or she is capable of performing satisfactory graduate work in the department. Admission under these circumstances is conditional. Completion of nine hours of graduate work with a grade of B or above in each course and removal of all deficiencies will lead to full standing.

PROGRAMS
MA—History
The Master of Arts-History is intended for those who wish to increase their backgrounds in history and for those students who intend to do further advanced work in history. Graduate students who complete the program are expected to broaden and deepen their knowledge and understanding of history and techniques of historical research to ensure a sound, factual knowledge and a grasp of pertinent historical literature in the fields in which they study, to appreciate the historical method of searching for truth, and to recognize the complex nature of historical developments.

To complete the program, students must earn a minimum of 30 credits including a thesis for six credits; earn 30 credits including a research paper for three credits; or earn 33 graduate credits of coursework, with no research paper or thesis required. Up to nine credits may be from disciplines outside of History with the approval of the adviser. All students must attain a GPA of 3.00 or higher and complete Hist 793. Students are required to complete Hist 719 preliminary to writing the thesis or research paper. At least 18 credits must be taken in courses open only to graduate students.

Degree requirements have been arranged and a counseling system devised with the intention of providing each student a program encompassing both breadth and depth. Students prepare themselves in a field of concentration designed to meet their needs and interests.

Graduate Certificates Program in History
The Graduate Certificates Program in History is for individuals who would like to expand their competence and knowledge in a particular area of history. The program is designed to offer flexibility based upon the specific needs or interests of students. Graduate certificates emphasize specialization and depth of knowledge in a specific area of interest. The program is available to those admitted as special students and graduate students admitted to the MA Program in History who may choose to pursue certificates within the MA program. Special students seeking admission to the MA Program should apply before nine credits have been completed in the Graduate Certificates Program.

Requirements for Graduate Certificates
To complete a graduate certificate, students must earn a minimum of 15 credits in an area of concentration including six credits in courses open only to graduate students (700-level courses). Students may include a total of three credits from Hist 797 and up to three transfer credits in a certificate program. (4) official notice of the applicant’s score on the GMAT or GRE.

ADMISSION STATUS

Students enrolled in the MBA program will be classified according to the criteria outlined below.

FULL STANDING

Qualification as a student in full standing requires the following:

(1) a cumulative GPA in all undergraduate coursework of 2.75 or higher (A = four points);
(2) an acceptable score on the GMAT or GRE;
(3) successful completion of all MBA Program Course Prerequisites.

A student with probationary or conditional status will be reclassified to full standing when all requirements have been satisfied.

CONDITIONAL STATUS

Conditional status may be granted to a student who (1) has not satisfactorily completed all MBA Program Course Prerequisites, or (2) has not submitted a satisfactory score on the GMAT or GRE, or (3) is currently completing a baccalaureate degree at UW-Eau Claire and has been permitted to enroll in courses for graduate credit, or (4) has not submitted all credentials required for evaluation prior to first registration.

Conditional students will not be allowed to register for MBA modules, the electives/dual-numbered courses, thesis, or the directed project until they gain full standing.

There are two exceptions to conditional students not being allowed to enroll in the graduate MBA program. First, an undergraduate student who is currently enrolled at UW-Eau Claire and has satisfactorily completed all foundation coursework, received a satisfactory score on the GMAT or GRE, and obtains a written recommendation from their adviser, department chair, and MBA program director will be permitted to enroll in the MBA graduate program for a limited time. Secondly, a student who has completed all admission requirements except for a satisfactory GMAT or GRE score may be permitted to enroll in MBA 711 or a limited number of electives, but will not be permitted to register in subsequent electives without a satisfactory GMAT or GRE scores.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROCESS

Satisfactory progress is defined as the maintenance of a GPA of 3.00 or higher in the program. A student not making satisfactory progress toward the degree may be placed on probation or dropped from the program on the recommendation of the director of the MBA program.

A 3.00 overall GPA in courses counting toward the MBA is required for graduation. A course in which a grade of less than C is earned will not be counted toward the 30-credit MBA minimum, but will be computed in the GPA. A maximum of six credits of C work will be accepted.

A student earning a D or F in a graduate-level course will be dropped from the program regardless of whether the course was taken at UW-Eau Claire or at another college or university. The student may petition for readmission to the program by writing to the director of the MBA program. For additional information contact the MBA Office, Schneider 215, 715-836-6019.

The Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) program is designed to prepare students in adult-gerontology or family nursing to assume leadership roles in advanced professional nursing. Students are prepared for roles in nursing education. Requirements for the Master of Science degree in Nursing are approximately 41 to 42 credits (educator role preparation) and include an option of thesis or a scholarly project and public presentation. Completion of the program usually requires four semesters of full-time study and about 4 credits taken in Summer or Winterim for those interested in the educator role preparation. Beginning in 2015, the MSN no longer is a degree option for students pursuing the nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, or administration role preparations, in keeping with the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) decision to transition advanced practice nursing preparation to the Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree level. The last class of MSN students for the nurse practitioner, clinical nurse specialist, and administration role preparations was admitted for the summer of 2011. The MSN degree option continues to be offered for students interested in the nursing education role preparation.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR M.S.N. ADMISSION
Criteria for admission into the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) graduate program include:
1. An undergraduate degree in nursing from a nationally accredited (CCNE or NLN) nursing program, with a GPA of 3.00 or higher (see Notes 1 and 2);
2. Registration as a professional nurse in Wisconsin;
3. Knowledge/coursework in statistics at the undergraduate level;
4. Satisfactory evidence of personal qualification and capacity for graduate study in nursing;
5. Competence in health assessment;
6. Previous practice experience. Consideration will also be given to choice of population focus and role preparation and residency in an underserved area.

NOTE 1: A portfolio approach may be used for students who have not graduated from an appropriately accredited program. Contact the College of Nursing and Health Sciences Assistant Dean for Post Licensure Programs for more information.
NOTE 2: A graduate special student may not take more than two nursing courses or six credits in nursing before being admitted to the graduate program.
NOTE 3: Priority admission application deadline is January 4.
NOTE 4: Must complete and be current with health requirements, CPR certification, and background check in order to be enrolled in courses.

M.S.N. CURRICULUM
The core courses, all of which are nursing courses, are required of all students. Students select a population focus in Adult-Gerontologic or Family Nursing. Functional role preparation requires specific nursing courses which build on a core of nursing knowledge. Cognate courses will be selected by students and their advisers to augment their core knowledge, area of population focus, or functional role preparation. Graduate students must earn a grade of C or above in courses and practica to successfully progress.

PROGRAMS
Ed.S.—School Psychology
The School Psychology program is a three-year sequence of training which leads to the Ed.S. degree and license to practice school psychology in the public schools. The major concern of school psychologists is the growth and development, learning, adjustment, and education of children and youth. To address these and many other service needs, the training of school psychologists is quite extensive. Training includes preparation in clinical and evaluation procedures; understanding the education system, professional ethics, diversity, due process rights, and student and family needs; providing in-service education/applied research services and program evaluation; and the delivery of services (such as consultation, counseling, parent training, behavioral intervention, and multidisiplinary team facilitation). While employment in the public schools is the primary focus of this training program, some graduates have sought employment in institutional settings, guidance clinics, post-high school educational settings, or pursued study at the doctoral level.

Applicants must submit an application, three letters of reference (at least two from faculty), a written statement of professional goals, complete undergraduate transcripts of coursework, and the general aptitude scores of the Graduate Record Examination.

Program Degrees
The M.S.E. Degree Phase of the program provides the student with the academic background, introduction to research, professional seminars, and beginning practica in diagnostic and intervention skills. To complete the degree phase and earn the M.S.E.—School Psychology degree, the student must complete all first year required coursework, have a minimum of 31 graduate credits, earn a GPA of at least 3.00, and pass a written comprehensive examination.

The Ed.S. Phase, consisting of 37 graduate credits, provides the student with additional background in applied research, education foundations and methods, and advanced practica in the delivery of school psychological services. Students are placed in the public schools and in the on-campus interdisciplinary clinics. They also complete a multicultural practicum at the Lac Du Flambeau American Indian community’s school. Students must register for and pass the National Association of School Psychologists qualifying examination for National Certification in School Psychology. This examination is usually taken during the second semester of the second year. Upon passing the NCSP examination and successful completion of all requirements during the first two years of the program, except the thesis, students are recommended for the initial license in school psychology and are eligible to enroll in Psyc 787 Internship in School Psychology.

The internship is the capstone of the school psychology training program: it provides a placement, usually salaried, in a full-time (minimum of 1,200 hours) supervised, professional work experience. The Ed.S. degree is conferred upon successful completion of all program requirements, including the internship and the Education Specialist thesis. Upon conferral of the Ed.S. degree, students are eligible to apply for national certification in school psychology (NCSP).

As undergraduates, applicants to the school psychology program must complete the following courses as prerequisites for admission: psychology of exceptional children, statistics, psychopathology, and theories of counseling. Although a psychology major is strong preparation for the school psychology program, majors in education, communication sciences and disorders, social work, and nursing are also considered for admission. All applicants are encouraged to complete as many of the above prerequisite courses as possible prior to admission.

COURSES
All 500- and 600-level graduate courses include requirements or assignments which differentiate them from their companionate 300- and 400-level undergraduate offerings. Students who have taken courses required in the school psychology program at the 300 or 400 level may not use them to meet requirements in the graduate program.

PROGRAMS
The University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Social Work offers its Master’s in Social Work (MSW) program on the UW-Eau Claire campus in cooperation with the Department of Social Work.
The MSW program offers a social problem and social issues focus to the education and preparation of students as advanced practitioners and leaders across the fields of social work practice. Students find that the teaching of practice, knowledge, values, and skills with an analytic approach fosters the ability to acquire and translate knowledge into sound professional social work practice with individuals, families, groups, communities, and organizations.
The MSW program offered on the UW-Eau Claire campus is part-time and is designed to allow students who are not able to pursue full-time study to work toward an MSW degree on a structured time-extended basis:
• Courses are offered on Saturdays.
• Field work options can include places of employment.
• Advanced Standing is available for those individuals who have completed a BSW degree within the past seven years.
• Currently, the concentration that is available at UW-Eau Claire is Child, Youth, and Family.

Application information is available on the UW-Madison School of Social Work Web site at: http://socwork.wisc.edu/new_web/?q=node/58.
