Several speakers spoke in favor of keeping the Musical Therapy program by way of Differential Tuition money.

Rachel Benz – Hello! My name is Rachel Benz. I am a senior music therapy major and am currently president of the student organization for music therapy here on campus. I would first like to thank everyone here for coming out tonight and supporting our cause. Secondly, I would like to thank the student senate for giving us this opportunity to speak. Tonight you’ll be hearing from ten individuals with varying backgrounds talk about their experiences with music therapy.

We currently have 18 majors who are still in the program, in addition to non-majors who are completing topical minors, general education courses, directed studies, and service learning projects with us. Our numbers may be small, but we have a large presence on campus and in the community as our faculty and students service over 1000 people weekly in the Chippewa Valley, making a large impact and generating goodwill toward the university. We see clients in hospitals; nursing homes and other long term care facilities, forensic settings, special education settings, their own homes, and our on-campus clinic.

Our program showcases the mission and strategic plan of the university by combining research, teaching, and community service in the delivery of courses as well as interdisciplinary collaboration across colleges and schools for curricular development, assessment, and redesign. Over the past 2 decades 45 grants have provided 115 majors and non-majors with research opportunities to assess and design curriculum, resulting in a major curricular revision that integrated developmental sequencing of courses and resulted in a ten-year plan.
106 majors and non-majors have presented the results of our research through 65 presentations at international, national, and regional conferences and in state and local venues as well as on our award-winning website. We have included technology in our curriculum development through a series of grants with the Soundbeam, our video editing lab, and our website.

The music therapy program really matches what you have labeled as important in the Blugold Commitment. Our advising involves weekly 1:1 meetings with our professor during which we engage in reflection to critique and plan for our sessions each week based on the status of our clients at the last session. We use an integrative learning process which helps us make connections across disciplines and content areas to prepare for our current clinical placements, document the work of our clients to meet insurance reimbursement standards, explore which programs would be the best match for us when we apply for internships, and then prepare our written and audio internship applications and practice music skills for our auditions for internships. We create individualized professional growth plans to target our own strengths, weaknesses and areas of interest and grade ourselves weekly on our progress toward these goals we have set for ourselves, demonstrating intentionality. International immersion experiences for us have included the creation of a six-month internship in Cambodia to service young girls who were rescued from human trafficking. We also have a clinical experience immersion course in Jamaica which is open each summer to students. International students on campus volunteer with us and have been chosen for scholarships specifically because of the opportunity to study music therapy. We have been able to raise support for them and supply them with musical equipment and supplies to enable them to implement music programming in their native countries when they return.

Thank you again for this opportunity to speak. Next I would like to introduce Duane Lammers who will be our next speaker.

Tara Meyer – There was this man who loved to dance. As a nursing aide in high school, I would dance with him down to supper every night. But then Parkinson’s disease took over. He went from the 2 step to little shuffle steps to barely even able to take the first step. I tried encouraging him to keep up his activity level; but nothing I did seemed to make a difference. If I had known the role music therapy could have played in his life. Simply clapping out a beat or playing “Walk the Line” by Johnny Cash could have kept the dance in his step and twinkle in his eye. Hello, my name is Tara Meyer. I am senior here at UW –Eau Claire and will graduate in May with a bachelor’s degree in nursing. I first was introduced to music therapy my freshman year. I took the Introduction to Music Therapy class as a general not really knowing what it was or what impact it would have on my educational career or professional life as a nurse. Since then I have taken several other music therapy courses and have created my own Topical Minor entitled “Adaptive Therapies for Integration into Nursing Practice.” Music therapy provided a way for me to take hold of what I was learning in the classroom and apply it to everyday life. Recently, I took content from a music therapy course to create a brochure enlisting only some of the ways I can incorporate music into the world of nursing. (Give brochure) As a nurse, I want to expand my focus from the medical diagnosis to become more emotional, social, spiritual, and family-orientated. The information learned has become more than just course work, it provides me with content to make a deeper connection with my patients and better their situation. I would strongly recommend these courses to all healthcare professionals. Whether it is a resident losing his ability to dance, or a culturally diverse patient who feels isolated, or someone in pain without relief, music therapy can provide the answer.

Duane Lammers –
Paula Smith –

Tim Lane (on behalf of Dr. Gretchen Peters, Associate Professor, Ph.D. in Musicology) – "The choice to eliminate Music Therapy has been a great loss to the Music and Theatre Arts Department. When I teach courses in music history, world music and American Indian Studies, I am constantly confronted with the power of music to heal, both on an individual and a societal level. Whereas this essential ability of music is recognized throughout the world, in Western European Classical music culture this ability of music is often hidden under its ability to entertain and to depict ideas. Music Therapy is one way in which this power of music has been openly recognized and incorporated into our department. Diversity in curriculum should not just mean addressing American Indian music in courses, but rather it should mean approaching music from a broader perspective so that when students encounter American Indian music they automatically approach it with a greater openness and appreciation. By eliminating Music Therapy at this university, a more narrow music curriculum and department has been created. My sense of loss is also tied to the purpose of this degree, which is to serve people in great need, those in hospitals, nursing homes and jails."

Approval of Minutes from May 17th, 2010

Report of the President

We have a new advisor, Brian Carlisle, who is also our new Dean of Students. Let’s all welcome Brian to his new home in Eau Claire. One of the first things I did was attend the Chancellor’s Retreat & Golden Arrows meeting with VP Rynish and Director Morgan. I’ve passed around a copy of the gold arrows for your review. This is the first time students have been appointed as facilitators of the University’s goals, specifically myself, Chief of Staff Tweedale, and Director Sias.

I also served on the Search and Screen for the Director of Business Services, which is the number two under Dave Gessner. Mark Reeves was appointed and will now be the co-advisor to the Finance Commission along with Dave Gessner and Beth Hellwig. He may also become one of the advisors to the EEC.

I also attended the United Council Convention in June as the sole Eau Claire delegate. Kirk Cychosz was re-elected United Council President, and our own Janna Caspersen was elected UC Vice President. I also attended the United States Student Association Congress, for any details, ask me.

We will be getting two new desks in the Senate office, one for the Secretary/Webmaster and the other for the EEC Director. They have been delayed, so be flexible when they do get moved in the office.

I also sat on the Commission on Athletics which was looking over issues regarding the funding sources of athletics, Title IX issues, etc. The report should be coming from Chair Duyfhuizen shortly. I also served on the Commission on Health & Counseling Services which looked at services provided, the benefits and costs of subsidizing our own services, and the potential for a merger. The report from Chair Goulet should also be forthcoming soon.

Also, the bundles pilot by the Provost’s office has been implemented. You might remember that we funded this last spring through the Blugold Commitment. It’s an attempt to direct GE courses towards a general question. While we have long requested a student to serve on the committee, as we funded it and there are over 40 faculty and staff involved, all response from the Provost’s office has been nonexistent or noncommittal. Therefore, Director Morgan and I drafted a rather stern letter to be sent up to the Provost regarding the breakdown of communication and breach of trust between Student Senate and Academic Affairs. A meeting has been scheduled between Director Morgan and the Provost’s staff, so that should yield some results.

Additionally, the University vehicle fleet is now gone, largely due to the safety issues of fifteen passenger vans. All rentals will now be through Enterprise.

VP Rynish and I attended the UW-System Student Representatives meeting in Madison, which is all the Presidents and Vice Presidents of the system. There I was appointed to the UW System Student Reps/United Council Merger committee.

I’ve also been serving in my capacity as President on the New University Student Center Steering Committee. There’s an open house this Wednesday for the reveal of the plans, which Chief of Staff Tweedale will go into in her report.

Retreat was this past Saturday, I want to especially thank Beth Hellwig for hosting us and for Brian and Chief of Staff Tweedale for facilitating.

Finally, I have the Senator of the Week award. Something a little different this year, Brian Carlisle was kind enough to donate ten dollars of his own money which Blugold Dining matched as well. So each week, the Senator of the Week will be receiving twenty dollars to Blugold Dining. This week, the Senator of the Week is also a Director. He put in countless hours this summer on the Haas 24/7 Access issue even though he was under no obligation to do so. He’s moved this issue further down the line than anyone ever has, even though it’s been an issue for as long as the art chair has been here. The Senator of the Week is Director Matt Sias.

Dylan Jambrek

Report of the Vice President

Hello everyone and welcome back,

This year I will be attending the RHA meetings and the will be sending a representative to Senate as well so that our respective groups can begin to work together better.

On Thursday, September 23 from 12-1:30 Student Senate will be hosting a listening session in the President’s Room. All are welcome to attend.

I have been appointed to the Search and Screen committee for the Director of Assessment, look for updates as that process progresses.

The Student Court selection committee will be underway soon. We still need two students at large for this committee, so if you know of someone who may be interested please forward their name on to me.

Thank you and have a great week!

Phil Rynish

Report of the Chief of Staff

Welcome back to what I hope will be a very productive year on Student Senate!

Thank you to everyone that participated in the retreat this weekend, and special thanks to Beth Hellwig for hosting us at her house. I hope all the senators found benefit from spending a day at the retreat to gear up for this year!

As per the changes to our bylaws approved at Monday’s meetings, there will be some changes from past sessions on Senate. Senators are now required to complete Service Hours each week. Service Hours are participation in an activity, attendance at a university meeting, or involvement in a commission’s function. I will be announcing each week’s Service Hour during my report at the weekly meeting, in addition to sending out an Outlook invitation when appropriate to do so.

Directors are required to hold two office hours each week, which are times at which they will be in the Senate Office to work on projects for their commissions and be available to anyone that has questions or concerns. Individual directors’ office hours will be posted in the office by the end of this week.

This week’s Service Hour is attendance at the New Student Center Design Unveiling university event on Wednesday, September 15 in Schofield Auditorium. Sessions will be held at noon and 4:00; all senators are expected to attend one of the two sessions.

Student Senate will also be hosting a video-screening of United States Constitution in honor of Constitution Day on September 17. Please join Student Senate for the screening on Friday, September 17 at 1:00pm in the Davies Theater.

If you have any questions about responsibilities of Senators or Directors, please let me know. I am more than happy to address any comments, questions, or concerns you have!

Sarah Tweedale

Meets Wednesdays at 4:00 PM in OL1122

Hello everyone,

In lieu of a meeting this week, the Information Technology Commission’s Copyright Compliance Task Force met last week. We recertified the University’s compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act’s copyright compliance requirements for the academic year. Being in compliance with the HEOA is important, as this Act affords students nice things like Pell Grants and Federal Loans.

Commission bylaws are still being written and will be reviewed by the Commission soon. After the Commission has a chance to review and approve the bylaws, we will present them to the full Senate body for approval.

Meetings this semester will be held weekly on Wednesdays at 4:00 p.m. in Old Library 1122. Everyone is welcome to attend. If you would like to be a voting member of the Commission, please contact me to get appointed.

Thank you,

Matt Sias

Report of the Intergovernmental Affairs Commission

Director
Meets Mondays at TBA in TBA

The IGA Commission will be meeting for the first time on Monday, September 20th in the Student Senate office. We will be going over the voter registration plan and begin laying the ground work for the effort. Deputization meetings will [hopefully] be occurring next week, though the Clerk of Elections is a tough lady to pin down.

We will also be talking about plans for events coming up, so I expect much more to be in my report come this time next week.

Paydon Miller

Report of Organizations Commission

Director
Meets Wednesdays at 3:15 PM in TBA
In our meeting this week we will be reviewing two organizations' constitutions- one new, one updated.

We will be establishing a firm meeting time... as of this week, we are meeting at 3:15 on Wednesday, the 15th of September in the Senate Office. The majority of our meeting will be an introduction and discussion of the mission of the commission for the fall semester and the whole school year. Some of the items we will discuss are OrgSync, "Org of the Month", the new "Lit. Drop" policy, the upcoming Budget Handbook for Organizations and the importance of the new segregated fee process.

Have a great week!

Report of the Public Relations Commission
Director
Meets Mondays at 4:00 PM in TBA

Will be sending around a Senate Polo (or Jacket, but likely Polo) sign-up for a rough estimate to get quotes from suppliers.

Public Relations Commission meetings will be held at 4:00pm Mondays, location TBA.

A listening session will be held next week, probably September 22nd in the evening. Details will be hashed out tomorrow.

Senate Day is set for Wednesday, October 6th on the campus mall from 11-2pm. There will be a table for each commission, as well as display boards if they are ordered in time.

The Senatorials will be running from Wednesday to Wednesday this semester, in the hope that we can get news about ourselves from Monday’s meeting out before the Spectator does on Thursday. Deadline for content submission from commissions and orgs will be Monday at noon.

Report of the Student Services Commission
Director
Meets Mondays at 4:00 PM in Badger Room

Hello everyone!

There are many exciting things going on in Student Services within the next couple months and I’d love it if you could be involved! First and foremost, we are going to start promoting the Student Discount Program Sarah started last year so students know to simply show their Blugold at local restaurants/shops and they can get a discount!

Also, September is National Campus Fire Safety Month. Tomorrow I am meeting with Beth Hellwig to discuss plans for what we can do for the 2nd half of September for Fire Safety Awareness on campus.

Report of the Student Life & Diversity Commission
Director
Meets Thursdays at 3:30 PM in the DRC

Hello everybody,

Happy 1st Senate meeting! I am going to be emailing everybody in my commission tomorrow to say that the Student Life and Diversity Commission meetings will be at 3:30 on Thursdays in the DRC (Diversity Resource Center). Come if you can, there will be treats!

SLD attended Safe Space with Bass on Sept. 4th. It was a dance and resource fair designed to welcome LGBTQA students. SLD had a booth promoting Senate and SLD.

This year we will be focusing on the Campus Climate Survey results as well as writing up resolutions for the faculty, staff, and class mentors to be safe space trained. At the meeting this Thursday we will be assigning chairpersons for the committees. We are looking for people to chair the Multicultural, Men's, Women's, and LGBTQA committees.

Thanks, have a good week!

Allie Shilling
And last but not least, House Day will take place in mid-October and we have already begun planning for that. Senator Mabrey, the Tenant Affairs Chairperson, has been working hard getting everything ready for that awesome event we hope you all will help out with!

Other than that, Student Services meetings will be Mondays at 4pm. That was the best time that worked with 12 of the 14 people’s schedules on the commission! The room is TBA because I still need to get that set up, but once I know, I will e-mail everyone to let you know. And if you are interested in joining or getting involved with Student Services, don’t hesitate to contact me!

Thanks!

Special Reports

Matt Sias – Planning for the implementation of a 24-hour access system for the Art & Design wing of Haas Fine Arts made some great strides over the summer. A plan to put electronic Blugold ID card swipe locks one external entrance door and several internal doors was submitted to Facilities Planning on July 29. Facilities has recently gotten back to us with several proposals we could go forward with. The Department of Art & Design is currently reviewing the proposals, and will be getting back to us soon. At that point, funding will need to be finalized, and then we can move into actual implementation. Optimistically, Art & Design students could have 24-hour access to their classrooms by Spring 2011.
