Named one of the 100 Best Recordings of 2017 by acclaimed music critic Ted Gioia, Trios for Two features seven world-premiere recordings of works written for violist Molly Gebrian and piano/percussionist Danny Holt, who plays piano and a large array of percussion simultaneously. The duo has performed this repertoire throughout the United States, including a tour of Wisconsin and Minnesota in 2016. Recorded in Los Angeles in 2015, this CD would not have been possible without generous support from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire.
