RE: Program Change

We request implementation of the following change with the next possible Catalog.

Name of Program: Global and Comparative History, Certificate

Program Code: 380-627

Date of Department Approval: Sept. 14, 2020

From: Current Catalog Web Page <https://catalog.uwec.edu/undergraduate/arts-sciences/history/global-comparative-history-certificate/>

To :

The section “The remaining 9 credits may be chosen from the following courses with at least 6 credits from the 300 or 400 level” amended to include the course HIST/LAS 172: Latin American History: Colonial to the Present.

Why:

This is a new course, added for the AY 2019-2020, which fits the overall themes and subject area of the certificate to develop “a deeper understanding of global interactions.” This course covers a wide geographical area and includes both analysis of international and interregional comparison and United States intervention in Latin America.

Note that the course is currently in the process of being cross-listed with Latin American Studies as LAS 172.

The section "The remaining 9 credits may be chosen from the following courses with at least 6 credits from the 300 or 400 level" amended to include the course HIST/LAS 172: Latin American History: Colonial to the Present.

Why:

This is a new course, added for the AY 2019-2020, which fits the overall themes and subject area of the certificate to develop "a deeper understanding of the history of race, gender, and society." The course devotes significant attention to issues of race and gender in Latin America.

Note that the course is currently in the process of being cross-listed with Latin American Studies as LAS 172.
