Changes in red. All other requirements will remain the same.

WHY:

IDIS 174 is not regularly offered and there are a number of other courses from which to choose, so we are removing it from the History/Literature course options.

The distinct language for piano and guitar is new. This language provides flexibility for piano and guitar students to choose the ensembles that will benefit them the most, based on their interests and skill sets, while maintaining the four-credit requirement. Most of the requirements and course options are the same but are being grouped for three instrumental areas.
