"I'm a quality assurance intern, and it's great trying to learn how to work with team members, and work in the industry environment in a real job. It's giving me that experience to say, 'Yes, this is really what I want to do.'"

Jordan Egner-Schnitzler
Materials Science and Engineering
Plover, Wis.
Internship at ITW Deltar Fasteners

“As an intern for the Integrated Marketing and Communications department, I have learned so much about content marketing, branding, social media, analytics and more that will apply directly to any position in communications.”

Ben Fisher

Unlock the door to your future career with an internship. An internship allows you to explore career options, embrace real-life work experience and step outside of your comfort zone to pursue self-discovery and become an active member of society.

Through your internship, you'll be empowered to gain new knowledge and skills that employers look for, like:

- Analyzing and interpreting information
- Developing and expressing informed opinions
- Communicating effectively
- Understanding individual and social responsibility
- Appreciating diversity among people and cultures

Your resources for success

Your goals inspire our faculty, advisors and career counselors to help you network with business professionals, discover your passions and do whatever else it takes to pursue your dreams.

Get involved early in your academic journey with these resources, and you will be able to walk across the stage at graduation with your next move lined up.
