Coping with COVID and UWEC Student Self-Harm: Risks and Resilience
Jennifer Muehlenkamp, Psychology

Let’s Get United and #ClearTheShelters: The Factors Contributing to Users’ Network Centrality in Online Social Networks
Ezgi Akar, Information Systems

The Economic Progress of Hmong Refugees in the U.S.
Wayne Carroll, Economics

Diversity of Wisconsin Sunflowers
Nora Mitchell, Biology

Historical Costume Patterning
Amanda Profaizer, Music and Theatre Arts

Share Pledge and Earnings Persistence: Evidence from China
Xinruo Wang, Accounting and Finance

Optimizing Outcomes in Trauma Resuscitation
Jason Beckermann, Mayo Clinic

Communicating Heritage Tourism and the Environment on Minnesota’s “North Shore”
David Tschida, Communication and Journalism, Liberal Studies

Building a World Classroom Between UWEC and Malaysia
Kaishan Kong, Languages

Wednesdays • 12:10 -12:50 p.m. • Vicki Lord Larson Hall 1142 (CETL)
Livestream: http://uwec.ly/live

Seating in CETL Lobby is limited to 25 attendees—first come, first served.