2019 National Emerging Leadership Summit Still Accepting Applications

National Emerging Leadership Summit for Health and Aging Services Executives
Tuesday, July 16 – Thursday, July 18, 2019

The National Emerging Leadership Summit in Washington, D.C. aims to increase, improve, and support the health and aging services profession to attract talented and future leaders by giving a voice to the next generation of leaders. Summit participants will have the opportunity to:

- Strategize: Collaborate with other emerging leaders in the post-acute field and develop strategies on how to increase, improve and support the value of the profession for leaders to attract talent.
- Advocate: Learn about the regulatory and legislative issues facing the profession and how to support innovative change.
- Connect: Unite with fellow emerging leaders, and have an opportunity to network with key leaders of ACHCA, NAB, AHCA/NCAL, Argentum, LeadingAge, NIC, and invited legislators.
- Innovate: Attain knowledge on how to effectively lead your organization and the profession through shared learning experiences.

For more information, visit us at <http://www.nelssummit.org>

Summit participants will:

- Identify, develop, and refine solutions for the next generation of leaders building on themes from the previous years' emerging leaders
- Meet with representatives of key professional organizations and gain an inside perspective on the legislative process
- Engage in discussions with other professionals in the field of health and aging services to advance an agenda of innovative action.
- Earn 19 continuing education credits (CEs), and have the opportunity to visit the Capitol in D.C.

To learn more about the upcoming Summit -- and also about the 10th Anniversary Alumni Deep Dive event -- visit the NELS website. The application deadline has been extended to Friday, June 14. The Summit application can be found on the NELS website.
